

HARFORD FAIR BOARD MEETING
AND CHICKEN BBQ
JULY 11, 1994
DINING HALL--FAIR GROUNDS

In the minutes of the June meeting:

Cecil
Rose

Robert Powell noted that in addition to the memorial for Cecil Rose in the fair book other shows and papers have given recognition to Cecil. The Finger Lakes Feather Club in Syracuse presented a memorial award in June, the Central Penna. Avian Club in Bloomsburg a memorial in May and the Poultry Press which is a National Poultry Paper carried pictures and the obituary. Coming up in late August at the New York State Fair a trophy for the Champion Standard Male Chicken and a plaque for the Best Plymouth Rock will be given in memory of Cecil. Cecil was well known and respected. He accomplished much and we are thankful for his part in other areas as well as Harford Fair.

Memorandum

To CATHERINE A. BOLTON
From M. L. WINTER
Date July 8, 1994
Subject Clarks Summit
Copies to CARBONDALE PUBLIC LIBRARY

As we discussed briefly in the hall a week or so ago, the Carbondale Public Library is in the midst of a capital funds campaign. Their current building is too small to house their collection and provide all services associated with a community library. The building is not accessible to the handicapped. Costs of retro-fitting the current building are prohibitive and the present site is unsuitable for expansion. The City of Carbondale and the library board have reached an agreement whereby the city will "swap" land adjacent to the current city hall for the current library building. A new library building is to be constructed.

The Carbondale Public Library serves not only the city of Carbondale but also provides services to Jermyn, Mayfield, Simpson, Fell Township and surrounding areas. A number of Akzo Nobel employees live in this area. They and their families utilize the library and depend on its being there to provide the best service possible.

I would very much appreciate your considering a contribution of at least $1,000 from Akzo Nobel Salt to the library fund to help insure that those of us in the up-valley continue to have access to these facilities.

Meg Winter

ROBERT.....

THIS IS A COPY OF A MEMO I WROTE TODAY TO OUR DIRECTOR OF CORPORATE COMMUNICATIONS IN THE HOPE THAT AKZO CAN MAKE A CONTRIBUTION TO THE LIBRARY FUND.

SEVERAL WEEKS AGO I READ AN ARTICLE ABOUT THE LIBRARY'S FUND RAISING IN SOME NEWSPAPER OR OTHER.....THE NEW YORK TIMES? THE WASHINGTON POST? THE TIMES OF LONDON? WHO KNOWS! PERHAPS IT WAS THE CARBONDALE NEWS. ANYWAY, IT MENTIONED JOE PASCOE BY NAME. I CALLED HIM, TOLD HIM I WAS WILLING TO TRY TO GET MONEY FROM AKZO. HE WAS TO CONTACT THE BOARD PRESIDENT, OBTAIN A LETTER FROM HIM, FORWARD IT TO ME AND I WOULD THEN APPROACH CATHERINE. HE SAID SOMEONE ON THE BOARD HAD SOME CONTACTS AT AKZO AND HAD VOLUNTEERED TO APPROACH SOMEONE HERE. NONE OF THIS HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.

ONE DAY THEREAFTER, I MET CATHERINE IN THE LADIES ROOM AND ASKED HER IF IT WOULD BE POSSIBLE TO SOLICIT A DONATION AND IF SO, HOW I SHOULD DO IT. SHE SAID THAT MONIES FOR SUCH CONTRIBUTIONS HAD BEEN GREATLY REDUCED AND THAT SHE DONATED MAINLY TO "CAUSES" IN THE ABINGTONS (PRONOUNCED AUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUBINGTUUUUUUUUUUUUUNS) AND THE CITY OF SCRANTON. I BEGGED HER PARDON AND INDICATED THAT A NUMBER OF US LIVED 'UP DA VALLEY' AND THAT I FELT OUR CAUSE WAS AS GOOD AS ANY IN THE AUUUUUUUUBINGTUUUUUUUUUUUUUNS. SHE ALLOWED AS HOW THAT MIGHT BE TRUE AND THAT IF I WROTE HER SHE WOULD CERTAINLY GIVE IT HER CONSIDERATION. SHE ALSO ALLOWED AS HOW SHE THOUGHT SHE HAD ALREADY REJECTED A REQUEST FOR A CONTRIBUTION BUT WOULD RETHINK IT BECAUSE AN AKZO EMPLOYEE HAD MADE A REQUEST.

NO PROMISE THAT THE RESULT WILL BE POSITIVE BUT AT LEAST I GAVE IT A SHOT. MAYBE I CAN WIN BOTH "COUSIN OF THE YEAR" AND "NIECE OF THE YEAR" SIMULTANEOUSLY.....A FEAT NEVER BEFORE ACCOMPLISHED.

CUZZIN PEG

P.S I LOVE WORD PERFECT.....IT'LL CHECK MY SPELLING ON IMPORTANT WORDS BUT STILL ALLOW ME TO MISSPELL THOSE WORDS THAT I WISH TO MISSPELL. NOW,IF ONLY IT COULD WORK ON MY GRAMMAR. BY THE WAY, WHEN SPELL CHECK GOT TO "PASCOE" IT PAUSED AND SUGGESTED I HAD MEANT EITHER "PASSKEY" OR "PESKY".

July 20, 1994

Dear Mr. Fett:

The six India Blue eggs (see my letter to you of July 10th) all hatched last night and the chicks all appear to be vigorous and well. I must say that I was very surprised to see the feathered wings on the newly-hatched chicks. Their behavior, not surprisingly, is very different from that of young bantam and standard chickens.

It will, I'm sure, be an interesting experience to watch them grow. My plan at the moment is to raise them with the rest of my birds (standard and bantam chickens, Guinea Fowl).

Thanks again for the eggs.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Robert Powell". The signature is fluid and elegant, with the first name and last name clearly distinguishable.

AMERICAN POULTRY ASSOCIATION
26363 South Tucker Road
Estacada, OR 97023

Dear Nona:

I know that you are busy and that this is a very busy time of year, but time is running out and this is my third request to you for about 100 copies of the APA/ABA brochure, AN INTRODUCTION TO PUREBRED POULTRY.

There are three county fairs that I am involved with here in northeastern Pennsylvania, and the APA/ABA brochure would be a very nice item to be able to hand to prospective breeders/exhibitors who pass through the poultry buildings at these fairs.

If there is a charge for these brochures or if I am supposed to pay the postage, please let me know.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Murray McMurray Hatchery
Webster City, IA 50595-0458

Dear Murray McMurray:

Enclosed is a check for $20.00.

Please send me twenty dollars worth of your 1994 poultry catalogue.

I need about 50 copies for distribution to potential poultry breeders/exhibitors who pass through the poultry buildings of the three county fairs that I am involved with. If I could get more than 50 copies for my $20, that would be great.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Robert Powell

Dear Arlene and Jerry:

This is a belated, but nevertheless sincere, thank you for a very enjoyable Spring show in Augusta on April 23-24, 1994. I know how much work is required (usually done by a small group of dedicated club members) to make a poultry show a reality and appreciate the many hours of conscientious work that you and the Sussex County Poultry Fanciers Association put in to make the April 23/24 show the success that it was.

Good to see you both at Bloomsburg on May 1st. Enclosed is a copy of the June 1994 issue of the CPAC NEWSLETTER. I now realize that I made an error in the caption on the photograph on the bottom of page 3: somehow I thought that Jerry was President and Arlene was Show Superintendent. Please accept my apologies for the error. I'll insert a "correction" in the July 1994 issue of the CPAC NEWSLETTER.

See you at the Fall shows.

Sincerely,

S. Robert Powell

Dear Rick:

Sincere thanks to you and to the Buffalo and Western New York Poultry Association for a very enjoyable show on May 15th. I know how much work is required (usually done by a small group of dedicated club members) to make a poultry show a reality and appreciate the many hours of conscientious work that you and the B&WNYPA put in to make the May 15th show the success that it was.

Enclosed are copies of the May and June issues of the CPAC NEWSLETTER. As a poultry person, you will, I'm sure, enjoy reading them.

Sincerely,

S. Robert Powell

Dear Mrs. Mott:

Enclosed is an entry from the MOOSIC GRANGE 1041, Waymart, for the 1994 Wayne County Fair. A check for $2 is also enclosed.

Apparently we are not on the mailing list, because we did not receive a Premium List/Application for this year's Fair. Just a few moments ago, I spoke with George Schroeder and he suggested that I use an entry form from an old premium list, if I had one. Well, I dug around and came up with one.

We look forward to showing with the other Grange exhibitors again this year.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

S. Robert Powell, Secretary

Mr. Greg Davis, Manager
WALMART (Store 1884)
Route 6
Dickson City, PA 18519

Dear Greg:

Please accept my resignation, to be effective two weeks from today, as an associate in the Lawn and Garden Department at the Dickson City WALMART.

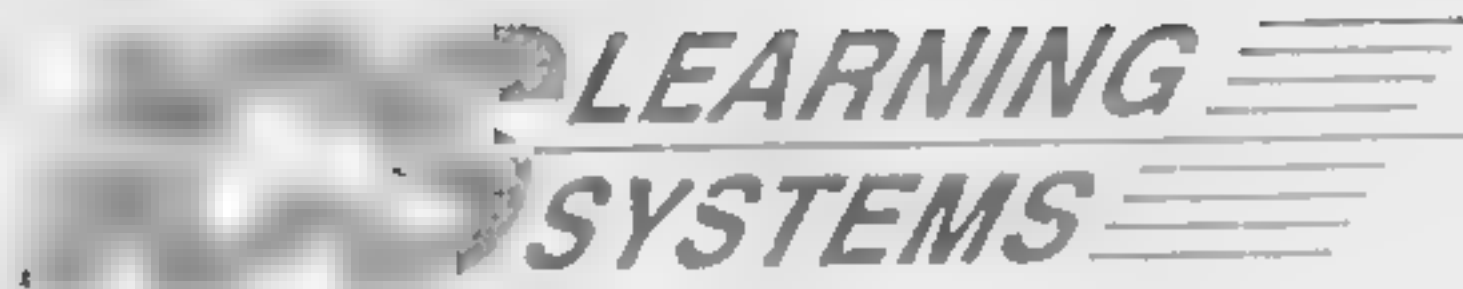

I am submitting this letter of resignation at the present time because of the fact that personal needs and realities make it necessary for me to do so. In the event that those needs and realities should, in the future, be assigned different priorities by me, I would like to be able to apply for a position as an associate at WALMART, and hope that you would welcome such an application.

From my first day of employment at WALMART (January 12, 1993) to the present time, it has been an enjoyable and rewarding experience to work under your direction. Thank you for the opportunity to be a part of WALMART.

Best regards,

Dear Mr. Powell:

You recently applied for a position as a Editor.

After carefully reviewing your qualifications against our position requirements, I regret to inform you that we have decided not to proceed further with application. Please understand that your qualifications are excellent, but unfortunately are not as closely aligned with the requirements of our position as are those of other candidates.

However, we will keep your resume and application in our active file in the event a position commensurate with your background and experience becomes available in the future.

Thank you for your interest in employment with ICS and may we wish you every success in locating a position which will fully utilize your excellent capabilities.

Sincerely,

Dear Board Member:

A special work session will be held on Tuesday, July 5, at 7:00 p.m. at the library. Please note we are starting a half hour earlier than the usual meetings.

The fund raising committee will be planning several projects; the first, a book sale during "Sidewalk Sales" days. Other projects will also be discussed.

A report will be given on the ham dinner.

Please bring any pledge returns you may have to the meeting. We must raise more money, so this work session is very important. Please be there.

Yours truly,

AMERICAN LEGION POULTRY SHOW

By S. Robert Powell

The Third Annual Poultry Show, sponsored by the Albert H. Crane Post 221, American Legion, Carbondale, PA, took place February 14-18, 1933.

In the Foreword of the Souvenir Program of the show, we read the following: "This is the only Poultry Show run by an American Legion Post in the United States. Of this fact we feel proud since it has been given notice all over the country."

We learned of the existence of these Carbondale poultry shows only by chance. One of my colleagues in the Carbondale Historical Society discovered the souvenir program for the 1933 Carbondale show in a box of Carbondale memorabilia that was discarded by a family when they cleaned out and moved into an old house in the area. The souvenir program in question was immediately brought to my attention.

The show took place in the Masonic Building, Salem Avenue, Carbondale. Poultry Show headquarters was the Hotel Anthracite. The poultry show committee consisted of the following: Charles A. Booth, H. M. Bender, Everett Reese, Leo Serafin, Dr. C. W. Rippon, Jas. Kilpatrick, Geo. Leshner, Barry Searle, and Fahy Ely. A well known poultry breeder and exhibitor who, as a young man, showed in these American Legion poultry shows in the 1930's in Carbondale is the late Cecil Rose of Montrose, PA (see the article "Cecil and Mary Rose," POULTRY PRESS, April 1989, pp. 32-33; also the obituary of Cecil Rose, POULTRY PRESS, April 1994, p. 2).

There were 381 birds in the show. Fifty one exhibitors showed 41 varieties of standards, with a total of 210 standards in the show. Nineteen varieties of bantams were shown by 25 exhibitors, who showed a total of 135 bantams. Two exhibitors who showed 9 varieties of ducks, with 18 ducks in the show. One exhibitor showed a capon. Two exhibitors showed 9 Bronze turkeys. One exhibitor showed two Egyptian geese. Two exhibitors each showed an old pair of Golden Pheasants and one exhibitor showed a young pair of Melanistic Mutant pheasants. The complete catalogue of the show was reprinted in the January 1994 issue of the NEWSLETTER of the Central Pennsylvania Avian Club.

The classes within varieties were the usual: cock, hen, cockerel, pullet. In addition, old pens and young pens were exhibited in many varieties. There were 12 bantam chicken pens shown and 15 standard chicken pens shown.

A pen, I learned from Elton Minnich, consists of three females and one male. In explaining to me what a pen was, Elton recalled showing pens with his father at the New York State Fair for many years. When a pen is judged, he added, the three females count 50% and the male counts 50%.

Many of the birds shown in the Carbondale American Legion show in 1933 were of breeds and varieties that one sees a lot of these days. There were shown, however, breeds & varieties that are not commonly seen these days - which no longer exist. Among the standard chickens were Dark Barred Rocks, Light Barred Rocks, Rose Comb Rhode Island Whites, Red Caps, Lakenvelders, La Fleche, six varieties of Pit Games (including Muff O. E. Pit Games), and five varieties of Hamburgs. Among the bantams were Exhibition B. B. Red Games and Old English Black Red Games, White Malay Games, Black Red Malay Games and White Rosecombs. Among the ducks were Australian Spots.

Catalogues such as this one from 1933 are, I think, interesting documents in exhibition poultry history. Have there been other poultry shows sponsored by an American Legion Post in the United States since the shows sponsored by the Albert H. Crane Post 221 in Carbondale in the 1930's? If there have, we would be interested to know when and where.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE, READ CAREFULLY

Fowl Laryngotracheitis Vaccine

Modified Live Virus

LT-IVAX®

Schering-Plough Animal Health

LT-IVAX is a live virus vaccine of chicken tissue culture origin containing a carefully selected fowl laryngotracheitis virus strain modified by passage in tissue culture. Because of the highly modified character of this vaccine, it does not offer the same degree of protection usually obtained from more virulent products. This vaccine contains a very mild attenuated virus and there is no danger of seeding down the premises with laryngotracheitis virus which can spread and cause the disease. For use in chickens 4 weeks of age or older, as an aid in preventing fowl laryngotracheitis through vaccination by the EYEDROP METHOD, according to the following schedule:

WHEN TO VACCINATE

INITIAL VACCINATION
4 weeks of age

REVACCINATION
10 weeks of age or older

YOUR VACCINATION PROGRAM

The development of a durable, strong protection depends upon the use of an effective vaccination program as well as many circumstances such as administration techniques, environment and flock health at time of vaccination. Also, the immune response to one vaccination under field conditions is seldom complete for all animals within a given flock. Even when vaccination is successful, the protection stimulated in individual animals against different diseases may not be life long.

If necessary, the vaccine may be used to aid in limiting the spread of an outbreak, however, only birds not yet infected with the virulent outbreak virus can be protected.

Examination of birds for vaccination "takes" is unnecessary and so-called "takes" are not to be expected. As with all live virus vaccines, a mild transitory reaction may occur in a small portion of the flock, and with LT-IVAX this is generally limited to a mild, localized eye reaction of short duration.

CONTRAINDICATIONS

The application of Newcastle Disease or Bronchitis Vaccine, either singly or in combination should be avoided for a three day period prior to and for three days after the application of LT-IVAX.

PREPARATION OF THE VACCINE

1. Do not open and mix the vaccine until ready for use.
2. Mix only one vial at a time and use entire contents within 2 hours.
3. Remove the tear-off aluminum seal and stopper from vial containing the dried vaccine.
4. Remove the tear-off aluminum seal and stopper from the bottle containing the diluent. Insert long end of adapter into diluent bottle.
5. Hold the diluent bottle firmly in an upright position and insert the vaccine vial on the adapter of the diluent bottle. The neck of the vaccine vial should snap into position and should be seated securely on the adapter on the diluent bottle.
6. Invert the two containers so that the vaccine vial is on the bottom and allow the diluent to flow into the vaccine vial. If the diluent does not flow freely, squeeze the bottle gently and the diluent will flow into the vaccine vial. The vaccine vial should be completely filled with diluent to prevent excess foaming.

7. Hold the joined containers by the ends; shake vigorously until the vaccine plug is completely dissolved.
8. Return the joined containers to the original position (diluent bottle on the bottom). Allow the vaccine to flow into the diluent bottle. If the vaccine does not flow into the diluent bottle, tap or squeeze the diluent bottle gently and release to draw the vaccine into the diluent bottle. Be sure all the product is removed from the vaccine vial.
9. Remove the vaccine vial and adapter from the neck of the diluent bottle and insert dropper applicator into plastic diluent bottle.
10. The vaccine is now ready for use.
11. Wash hands thoroughly after mixing the vaccine.

HOW TO VACCINATE

Vaccination for LT by the EYEDROP METHOD is conducted by allowing one full drop of rehydrated vaccine to fall into the open eye of the bird and hold until the bird swallows. Hold dropper bottle in vertical position throughout vaccination to avoid wasting vaccine.

CAUTION

1. For veterinary use only.
2. Vaccinate only healthy birds. Although disease may not be evident (coccidiosis, chronic respiratory disease, mycoplasma infection, lymphoid leukosis, infectious bursal disease, Marek's disease, or other disease conditions may cause serious complications or reduce protection).
3. An eye reaction may be noticed if birds are incubating coryza or other infectious organisms, or if there is excess ammonia or dust in the air of the housing facilities.
4. In outbreak situations, vaccinate healthy birds first, progressing toward outbreak areas in order to vaccinate diseased birds last.
5. Do not spill or spit on the vaccine. Use entire contents of vial when first opened. Burn empty bottles, caps and all unused vaccine and accessories.
6. Do not dilute the vaccine or otherwise stretch the dosage.
7. Store at 2° to 7°C (35° to 45°F).
8. Do not vaccinate within 21 days before slaughter.

RECORDS

Keep a record of vaccine type, quantity, serial number, expiration date, and place of purchase, the date and time of vaccination; the number, age, breed, and location of the birds; names of operators performing the vaccination and any observed reactions.

This vaccine contains gentamicin as a preservative.

Mr. John C. Pierce
Superintendent, POULTRY DEPARTMENT
New York State Fair
3832 Makyes Road
Syracuse, NY 13215

Dear John:

I received the Poultry premium book for the New York State Fair for 1994 a couple of days ago and would like to show some birds in the Fair.

The week of August 21 through 27 is the week of the county fair in Susquehanna County and I am one of the Superintendents of the Poultry Department. Virtually all of my show birds will be in the fair here during the week August 21-27.

Given the fact that entries in the NYS Fair must be cooped in on Aug. 24/25, it will be extremely difficult/virtually impossible for me to get some birds to Syracuse because they will be in the county fair here and I really can't get away on the 24th/25th.

Will it be possible for me to coop in my birds at the New York State Fair on Sunday afternoon/early evening, August 28th? I make this request only because I see rule #4 on page 8 of the premium list, which states that "Late arrival of birds is permitted only upon proof of evidence of their exhibition at a NYS Fair whose dates overlap the dates of the NYS Fair." The local county fair here in Susquehanna County is NOT a New York State Fair, but possibly you will allow the late arrival of some out of state birds that are in a fair whose dates overlap with the coop-in dates of the New York State Fair.

If I am to get an entry to you by July 25th, I will have to know the answer to this request fairly quickly and have enclosed a stamped, self-addressed envelope for your convenience in replying.

Thanks for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Robert

Dear Clyde,

All I ever do is work! I can't even find the time to drive to Elkdale to pay you for cutting the Elkdale Cemetery.

Enclosed are two checks for $75. If I remember correctly our conversation of a couple months ago at Wal-Mart, you said, I think, that I over-paid you for last year, so the two enclosed checks should probably get us back on schedule.

One of these days, I'll get to Elkdale, and If I owe you money for grass cutting, I'll take care of it then.

See you one of these days.

Sincerely,

Robert

Dear Dr. Powell:

Welcome back as a part-time faculty member for the Fall Semester at Penn State Worthington Scranton Campus. You will be joining a faculty of 46 full-time and approximately 30 part-time individuals, all dedicated to high quality instruction for our student body of 1200.

With this letter I am enclosing some important information for your use. Please read it carefully to assure that we get off to a good start. This year Mrs. Dempsey (Dawson, Room 5) will handle the computer/paper personnel work (the important step which enters the data for your compensation!) and Mrs. Avery (Dawson, Room 7) will assist you with requests for instructional supplies. Please don't hesitate to call on us if you should need assistance.

As you know, classes begin Wednesday, August 24. However, the first event for all faculty and staff will be on Tuesday, August 23. Please join us then for our ALL CAMPUS PICNIC at 5:00 p.m. in the picnic grove next to the Library on Campus. This informal gathering is a great way to meet new colleagues and greet old friends. Please RSVP BY August 19 to 963-4770.

I hope that the new semester is a rewarding one for you and your students, and look forward to seeing you again.

Sincerely,

K. Bruce Sherbine

We wish to acknowledge the receipt of your letter regarding the availability, value, or background history of your Noritake China pattern.

We regret to inform you that your pattern has been discontinued by the factory and is no longer available through Noritake. Unfortunately we do not have information on your pattern because it is too old and we no longer have the pertinent records. However, the following are names and addresses of sources for possibly locating non-current Noritake patterns. These are independent dealers who specialize in matching pieces of old dinnerware, and say they will do APPRAISALS upon request.

When writing to them, please include the manufacturer's name, pattern name and number (or any identifying markings from the underside of the dinner plates). If you don't know the pattern name and/or number, a good color photograph should be sent. Or a clear Xerox copy with colors indicated will also prove sufficient in identifying the pattern. List the pieces you want and the quantity needed. Please include a self-addressed stamped envelope with your order to speed further correspondence. The Matching Service will let you know if they have the pattern, what pieces they have and the price of each piece.

Many of the Matching Services say they BUY OLD SETS of Noritake China. If you are interested in selling your pieces, be sure to mention this in your letter. Noritake takes no responsibility for the following companies. The list is merely a service to you.

July 5, 1994

Dear Wally:

Enclosed is your copy of the Japanese Bantam Breeders' Newsletter that you lent me. I sent a copy of our club NEWSLETTER (the one with the reprint of the JBBA article in it) to Joy L. Tate on 06-26-1994, and enclosed a note of thanks therein.

I mailed on 6/27 the June issue of the CPAC NEWSLETTER. I had some extra copies printed so that we can distribute them to potential members at the Lycoming County Fair and the Bloomsburg Fair. In a day or so, I will mail to you a package of about 50 extra copies of the June 1994 CPAC NEWSLETTER (with membership application enclosed) so that you can have them to hand out to potential members who come into the poultry building at Hughesville.

My expenses for the CPAC in recent weeks have been as follows:

$17.47.....	balance in account on 3/11/94
+ $100.00.....	from Wally Casazza on 3/13/94
<hr/>
$117.47
- $6.04.....	ten extra copies of 3/94 NEWSLETTER printed
<hr/>
$111.43
- $8.12.....	postage to mail out 28 copies of 3/94 NEWSLETTER
$103.31
- $26.00.....	printing of 4/94 NEWSLETTER
$77.31
- $15.60	postage to mail out 53 copies of 4/94 NEWSLETTER
<hr/>
$61.71
- $3.48.....	miscellaneous postage
<hr/>
$58.23
- .58	miscellaneous postage
<hr/>
$57.65
- $20.85	film developing of CPAC photos on 4/30 and 5/1
<hr/>
$36.80
- $10.83	post cards to announce clean up after show
<hr/>
$25.97

2858

+$100.00..... from Wally Casazza on 6/6/94

$125.97

-$42.40..... printing of 100 copies of 5/94 NEWSLETTER

$83.57

-$21.17..... postage to mail out 73 copies of 5/94 NEWSLETTER

$62.40

-$13.25..... photo half-tones for 6/94 NEWSLETTER

$49.15

Current expenses not yet subtracted from SRP account:

$80.00..... printing of 250 copies of 6/94 NEWSLETTER, 6/27/94

$17.40..... postage to mail out 60 copies of 6/94 NEWSLETTER, 6/27/94

$90.55..... printing of 1,000 mailing envelopes (with Orpington instead of turkey)

The total of current expenses not yet deducted from SRP account is $187.95 ($80 + $17.40 + $90.55). A check from the CPAC for $250 to cover the expenses incurred by the Editor on behalf of the club would cover these current expenses and leave enough, $111.20 ($49.15 + $250 = $299.15 - $187.95 = $111.20), to take care of CPAC expenses here for the rest of the summer and into the fall.

You'll be interested to know that nine of the photographs that are published in the 6/94 CPAC NEWSLETTER were also mailed to POULTRY PRESS--so they may appear there one of these days. I imagine that Briget has sent them a write-up of the show.

The envelope in which this letter is being mailed to you in is one of the new CPAC envelopes (an Orpington instead of the turkey). I will take a supply of them with me to the picnic on the 24th so that you may have as many as you like for your use.

Best regards,

Dear Mr. Fett:

The 15 India Blue Peafowl eggs arrived, IN PERFECT CONDITION, on Tuesday, June 21.

I allowed the eggs to "recuperate" from their journey for 24 hours and then put them under three tried and true broody hens (two standard Partridge Plymouth Rocks, and one standard Black Orpington).

Six of the eggs, I am pleased to report, will, if all goes well, hatch on July 20th. I am well aware of the many risks that one takes in ordering eggs through the mail and am VERY PLEASED with these India Blue eggs.

I'll let you know what happens on July 19/20.

Sincerely,

Robert Powell

Dear Rick:

Sincere thanks to you and to the Buffalo and Western New York Poultry Association for a very enjoyable show on May 15th. I know how much work is required (usually done by a small group of dedicated club members) to make a poultry show a reality and appreciate the many hours of conscientious work that you and the B&WNYPA put in to make the May 15th show the success that it was.

Enclosed are copies of the May and June issues of the CPAC NEWSLETTER. As a poultry person, you will, I'm sure, enjoy reading them.

Sincerely,

S. Robert Powell

Dear Arlene and Jerry:

This is a belated, but nevertheless sincere, thank you for a very enjoyable Spring show in Augusta on April 23-24, 1994. I know how much work is required (usually done by a small group of dedicated club members) to make a poultry show a reality and appreciate the many hours of conscientious work that you and the Sussex County Poultry Fanciers Association put in to make the April 23/24 show the success that it was.

Good to see you both at Bloomsburg on May 1st. Enclosed is a copy of the June 1994 issue of the CPAC NEWSLETTER. I now realize that I made an error in the caption on the photograph on the bottom of page 3: somehow I thought that Jerry was President and Arlene was Show Superintendent. Please accept my apologies for the error. I'll insert a "correction" in the July 1994 issue of the CPAC NEWSLETTER.

See you at the Fall shows.

Sincerely,

S. Robert Powell

The Pennsylvania U.S. Route 6 Grand Army Of The Republic Highway Song

Copyright © 1992

(Sing to the tune of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic")

We enter Pennsylvania as we cross the Delaware, Reminiscent of George Washington, except a bridge
is there,
Gifford Pinchot's home in Milford is a place
extraordinaire,

On GAR Route 6

Chorus: Driving, driving down the highway,
Pennsylvania's scenic byway,
Driving, driving down the highway,
On GAR Route 6

Along Lake Wallenpaupack is a lovely place to stay,
It's the largest lake completely in the confines of PA,
Just nearby we find the site where books were authored by Zane Grey,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

A famous locomotive is a sight that fascinates -
See the Stourbridge Lion replica that by the highway waits,
And the railroad here in Honesdale was the first in all the states,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

We cross the hilly Poconos, a sight that stirs the soul,
It's a land that tourists long to see and newlyweds
extol,
Here is Carbondale a town that found its fame in mining coal,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

In Scranton we will find a place where history is real,
For it owed its early livelihood to anthracite and steel,
Those who stop here for white pizza have a very tasty meal,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

To Scranton's sprawling valley we must fondly bid adieu,
But the Allegheny Plateau grants a very stunning view,

Of the Appalachian Highlands and the Susquehanna, too,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

Beyond the town of Rummerfield 200 years ago,
Came the exiled future king of France with Tallyrand
in tow,
Their enormous cabin rose beyond the normal status
quo,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

Historic old Towanda is a landmark to enjoy,
It was here where Stephen Foster moved when he was just a boy,
To the east the Camptown Racetrack kept the horse
in employ,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

Through Luther's Mills, West Burlington, and Troy the view is grand,
As we cross the rolling countryside across the verdant
land,
See the Mansfield University's outstanding marching band,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

The residents of Wellsboro most honestly insist,
That the Commonwealth's Grand Canyon is a sight
not to be missed,
Of the State's attractions tourists rank it high
upon their list,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

Near Galeton and Coudersport the whitetail deer run
so free,
Here at Denton Hill there's a lovely place for those who like to ski,

And the lumbering museum is a must for all to see,
On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

Along the Allegheny now to Smethport we are bound,
To America's First Christmas Store, it's open all year round,
Every ornament imaginable waiting to be found,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

Mount Jewett is the gateway to a site that awes the brain-
It's the famous Kinzua Viaduct, conceived by Thomas
Kane,
And it still can be traversed today by walking or by train,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

The Allegheny forest is among the Nation's best,
One can enter it from Kane, PA, a great and noble quest,
Here in winter ride a snowmobile, or simply take a rest,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

And now approaching Warren, we are in for quite a feast,
It's the gateway to the Kinzua Dam, the largest in the east,
And the scenic Kinzua Reservoir is paradise at least!

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

Through Youngsville, Corry, and to Union City now
we ride,
Just enjoying gently rolling hills and farmland countryside,
Yet these settlements were founded on an oil-
producing pride,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

Now heading south along Route 6 we greet a little town,
It's just a ways from Cambridge Springs - a tannery is found,
Which was operated by the abolitionist, Mr. John Brown,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

By Allegheny College then across the interstate,
We are heading now for Conneaut, a lake you'll find
first-rate,

Here in summertime the beaches and amusement park are great,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

At Linesville is the spacious Pymatuning Reservoir,
It's a border of Ohio, built in 1934,
And the road on which we travel runs along the
northern shore,

On GAR Route 6 (Chorus)

We hope that you've enjoyed your trip. We're glad you traveled here,
Through our forests and our farmlands, past our livestock and our deer,
And we hope that you'll return to see us once again
next year,

On GAR Route 6

Chorus: Driving, driving down the highway,
Pennsylvania's scenic byway,
Driving, driving down the highway,
On GAR Route 6

Author's Note:

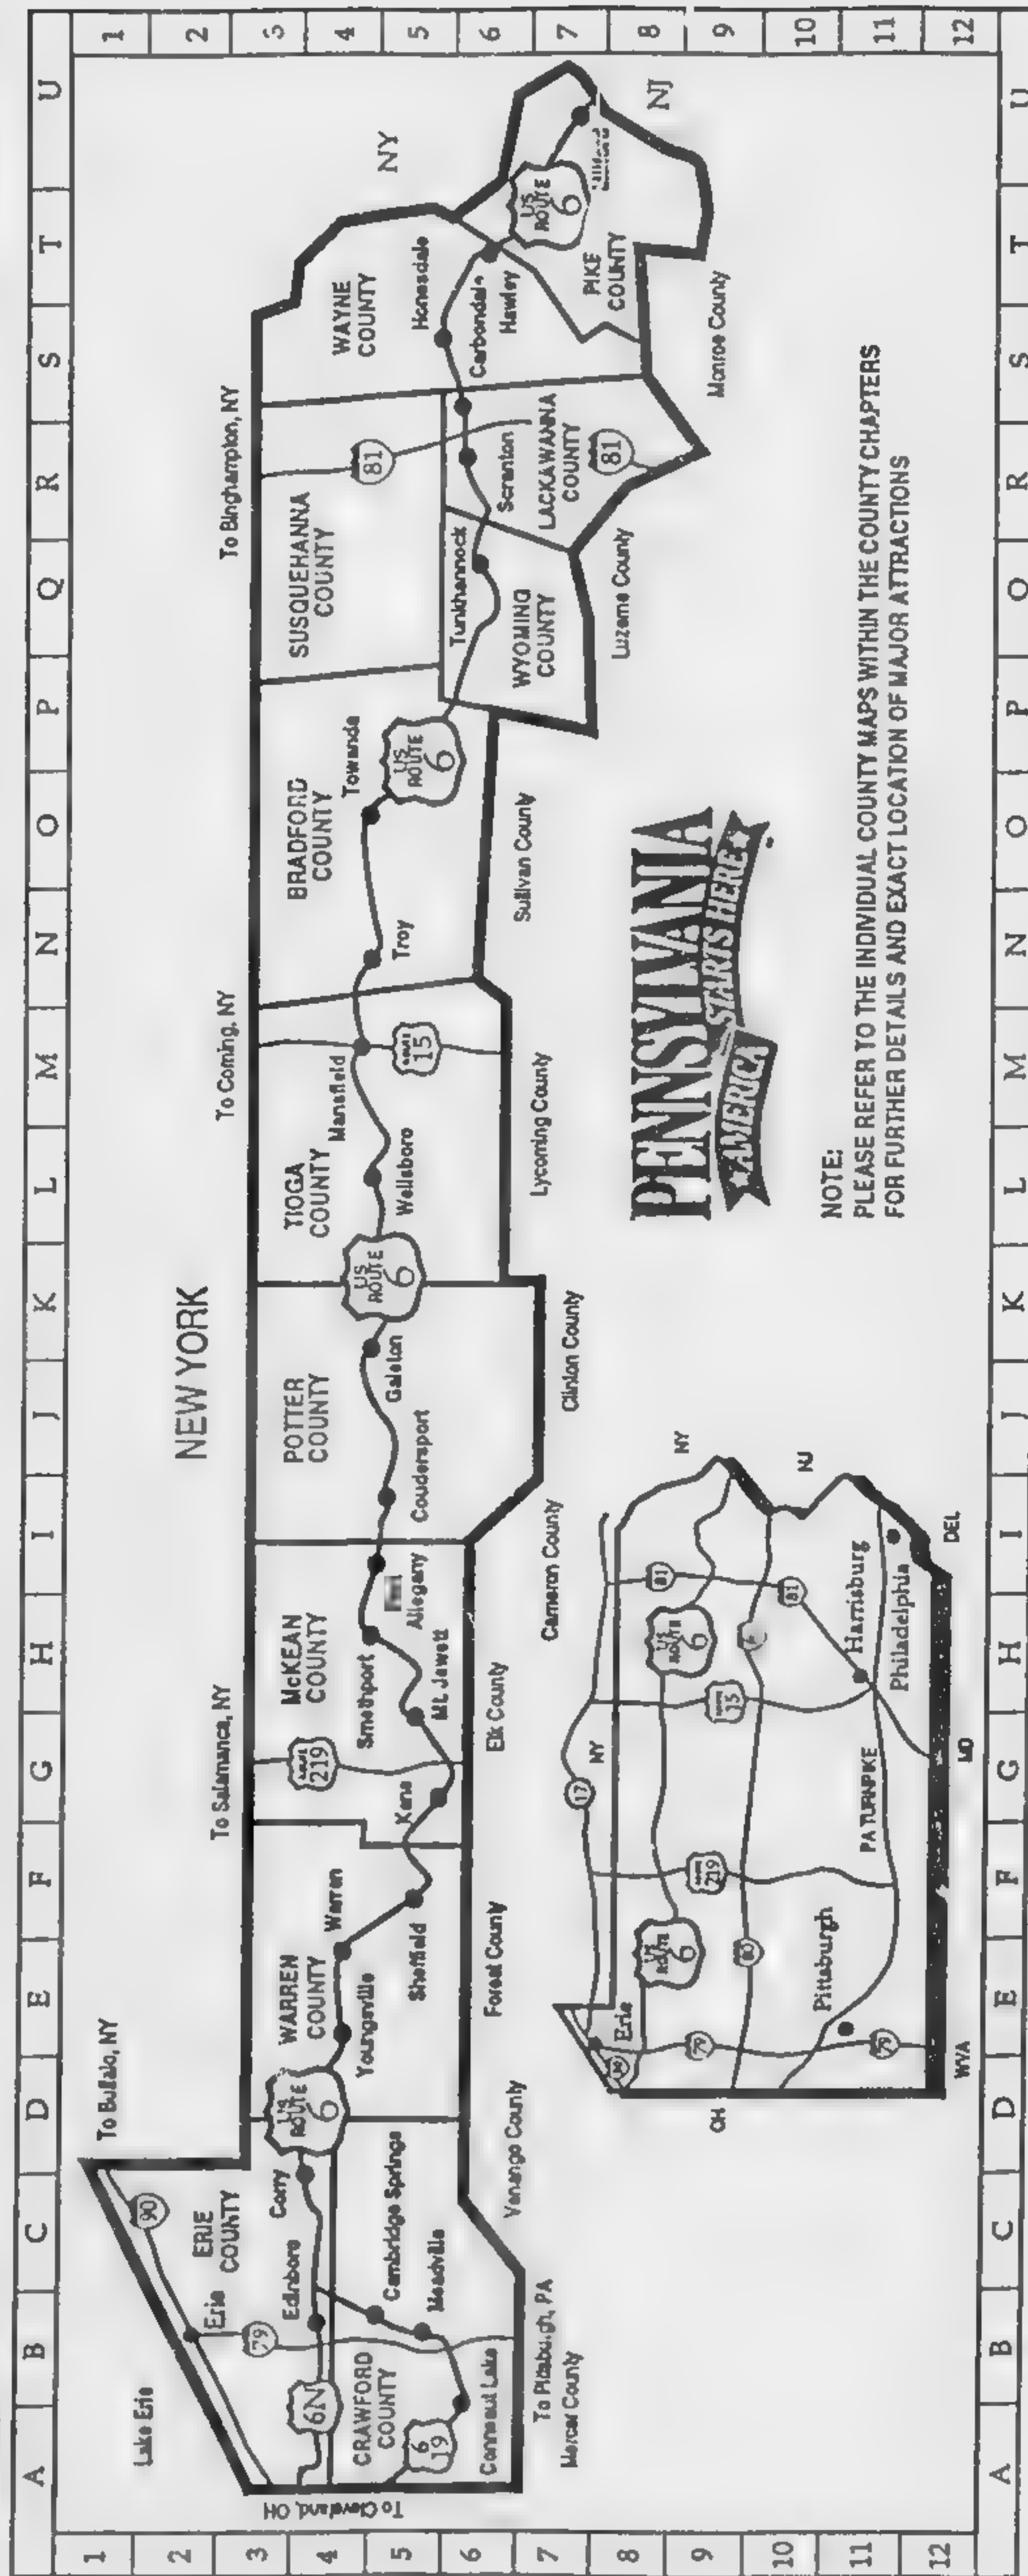

This song assumes that you are traveling Route 6 across Pennsylvania from east to west. If traveling from west to east, the verses can, to some extent, be reversed - no pun intended. The author recognizes that there may exist in the text some minor, trivial, inconsequential errors of technical nature, but attributes these to poetic license rather than ignorance. Apologies to the many wonderful communities along PA Route 6 which were not mentioned due to lack of space. ("Battle Hymn of the Republic" is recognized as public domain.)

U.S. ROUTE 6, GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC HIGHWAY

THE HISTORY AND REBIRTH OF PENNSYLVANIA'S MOST SCENIC BYWAY

by Gordon S. Harmon

PART 1

U.S. Route 6, Grand Army of the Republic Highway, is America's first transcontinental route with a sense of grandeur and determination marching from "coast to coast". The Pennsylvania portion crossing the Northern Tier best represents the essence of the whole of this classic American route.

MAP, U.S. ROUTE 6

This great National Treasure was once the paths of early Indian trails. One will find, in Pennsylvania, a great majority of the highway system following the routes of a complex system sweeping in unbroken paths over valleys and mountains. The course of every Indian trail, every modern highway and railroad right-of-way is determined by our mountain and river topography.

Today, U.S. Route 6 #2 PHOTO PINE CREEK PATH lays on top of segments of the Forbidden Path, the Wyoming or Great Warriors Path, Sullivan's Trail, Tioga War Trail, Shamokin War Trail, the Pine Creek Path, and the Lackawanna Trail. Remember the scenes of the Native American Indians as you travel the unsurpassed mountains, valleys, and along the rivers. Realize the trip that you are taking along the GAR Highway is enjoyable not only because of its scenic intrinsic qualities, but also impressive because of its historic setting.

On April 7, 1807, the State Legislature authorized a road from "East to West". Commissioners, of whom Francis King of Ceres, was one, were appointed for exploring and making a road through the Moosic Mountains to the western boundary of the State. It quickly became referred to as the East-West Road. On February 13, 1816, an Act (P.L. 325) appropriated $3,000, payable in three annual installments for improvements of the East-West Road. In 1833, Orlo J. Hamlin, representing the district in the General Assembly, urged an appropriation of $200,000 for repair and improvement of the East-West Road. From 1824 to 1853, the Bellefonte and Erie Stage Line, Warren and Erie Stage Line and O.R. Colgrove's stage were frequent means of transportation along the western segments in Pennsylvania.

With improvements, February 1919 saw in Warren, the best pressed pavement bricks being laid from one end of town to the other (now known as Pennsylvania Avenue or U.S. Route 6) The American Association of State Highway Officials (AASHO), as they began the numerical system of naming roads, in October 1925 assigned U.S. Route 6. At about the same time, Route 6 was also named the Roosevelt Highway in honor of our 26th President, Theodore Roosevelt after his death in 1919.

The greatest achievement came with the leadership of Pennsylvania's Governor Gifford Pinchot (Founder of the U.S. Forest Service under President Theodore Roosevelt) in 1931. The "Get the Farmer Out of the Mud Program" #4 PHOTO MODEL "A" saw paving of 20,156 miles of Pennsylvania roadways including U.S. Route 6 except for the last 20 miles near the Ohio border. This final segment was completed in 1932.

In April 1934, the idea was born to name a memorial route as a tribute to the fallen comrades from the Northern States of the War Between the States. The Grand Army of the Republic, founded in 1866 and comprised of veterans of the Civil War, and the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, which became a National organization in 1881, began their quest to name a memorial route in living memory of fallen Civil War veterans. They choose U.S. Route 6 because of it being a transcontinental route and best represented our National heritage. It started in Massachusetts, where on February 12, 1937, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts signed a bill naming Route 6 as the Grand Army of the Republic Highway. Interestingly, this date coincided with President Lincoln's birthday. This began a National effort to petition all of the remaining 13 States that U.S. Route 6 traverses to pass enabling legislation naming Route 6 in Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Nebraska, Colorado, Utah, Nevada, and California. In 1948, Governor James Duff of Pennsylvania along with Secretary of Highways Ray F. Smock named the Pennsylvania segment. The last state took appropriate action in 1953, 16 years later, and the final GAR Highway marker was placed on the bluff at Long Beach, CA.

#5 GAR HIGHWAY SIGN

Since this time, the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War have continued to work towards keeping the Grand Army of the Republic Highway alive. It is indeed a fitting tribute through their tireless efforts, like their ancestors, that they work continuously to preserve U.S. Route 6 as the GAR Highway. This effort is done through a National GAR Highway Officer based in Rhode Island and through individual State GAR Highway Officers. The Pennsylvania State GAR Highway Officer resides in Montrose, PA.

No highway in America captures the legacy of our rich National heritage as U.S. Route 6 from Massachusetts near the site of the Pilgrim's landing in 1620 to the original western terminus in California near the bluff overlooking the bay where Juan Rodriques Cabrillo first saw this shore in 1542.

In 1965, the AASHO removed the original western terminus from Long Beach, CA to Bishop, CA.

U. S. Route 6, as it existed prior to July 1, 1964, can lay claim to the following achievements:

- It is the longest highway ever to exist in the United States at 3,652 miles in length.
- Its highest point is Loveland Pass, Colorado (at the Continental Divide) at 11,992 feet. It is the highest year around highway in North America and the highest US or interstate highway, period.
- It passes through 14 states, (in view of the 15th, New Jersey which is missed by less than one mile) more than other highway except US 1 (14 states and DC) and Interstate 95 (15 states). Like the Trans-Canada Highway, it passes directly through these states squarely with no short passes through the corners of states.
- The 14 states along U.S. Route 6 contain over 100 million people, more than can be found along any other highway in America.
- U.S. Route 6 is the only highway to pass through the three major metropolitan areas in the United States of New York City, Chicago, and Los Angeles.
- The eastern terminus of U.S. Route 6 lies farthest East of all transcontinental highways in the United States.
- The terrain along U.S. Route 6 is the most diversified of any US highway, starting at the Atlantic Ocean, ending at the Pacific Ocean, and passing through the Maritime Coasts of New England, the Atlantic Coastal Plain, the Appalachian, Rocky, Sierra Nevada mountains, and the Coast Range, the Great Salt and Mojave Deserts, the Great Plains, the farm country of the lowland plains in the Midwest, and Nevada's Basin and Range.
- U.S. Route 6 has the greatest elevation differential (11,992) between high and low point along the highway.
- Coupling the elevation differential with a latitudinal change (north-south) of 9 degrees and a longitudinal change (east-west) of 49 degrees, makes it the most diverse three dimensional highway in America.

In 1985, U.S. Route 6, in Pennsylvania was named by Car and Driver Magazine as one of the top 10 scenic routes in America. Harley Davidson Company, based in Milwaukee WI chose Route 6 in 1987 as Pennsylvania's only selection to an honored list of the 50 Best Touring Roads in America. Both of these prestigious recognitions have given Route 6 National prominence as a destination for scenic, historic, and recreation driving for pleasure pursuits.

On July 27, 1994 U.S. Route 6 was honored once again during a Dedication Ceremony at Denton Hill, Potter County, PA as being designated as a National Recreation Trail by the Secretary, U.S. Department of Interior, Bruce Babbitt. This recognition places U.S. Route 6, in Pennsylvania among select company of distinguished American routes as part of the National Trails System.

#6 NRT SIGN

Today, in Pennsylvania, a renaissance to enhance the special quality of the scenic, historic, recreation, cultural, and archaeological value of the U.S. Route corridor has been undertaken by the Grand Army of the Republic Highway Association. The Association is an affiliation of Travel Promotion Agencies and Chambers of Commerce of the 11 counties that Route 6 traverses in Pennsylvania. This partnership includes a host of private and public interest in rural travel/tourism and Scenic Byways. This Association is an initiative through a Scenic Byways development program to foster increased travel/tourism along the Northern Tier of Pennsylvania. It is recognized that the promotion of the vast and rich scenic, historic, recreation, cultural, and archaeological resources of U.S. Route 6 as a package; an easily remembered name (Grand Army of the Republic Highway); and an image (Rural America) will significantly contribute to the economic revitalization of the rural economy along the Northern Tier. At the same time, a balance must be achieved to preserve the intrinsic values of the Route 6 Byway that make it the very special route that is proudly displays.

U.S. ROUTE 6, GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC HIGHWAY

THE HERITAGE TRAIL and THE "EAST-WEST" CONNECTIONS

by Gordon S. Harmon

PART II

In 1807, what is now U.S. Route 6, was known as the "East-West" Road. It seems fitting to link the "East-West" Road with the historical, scenic, recreational, cultural, and natural surroundings of the Route 6 Byway, in Pennsylvania and the growth of a great Nation from the East to the West. A glimpse and sampling of these connections includes:

Within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

1. Joining the ONLY two National Scenic and Wild Rivers in Pennsylvania.....Delaware River (Washington's famous crossing) and the Allegheny River which originates in Potter County (on U.S. Route 6) at Headwaters Mountain and some say the source of the Mississippi.
2. Coupling the Gifford Pinchot Heritage (1st Chief of the US Forest Service under President Teddy Roosevelt....Route 6 was known as the Roosevelt Highway beginning in 1925).... Grey Towers and Pinchot Institute for Conservation to the Allegheny National Forest, Pennsylvania's ONLY National Forest. U.S. Route 6 was known as the Roosevelt Highway across the United States, named for our 26th President, Teddy Roosevelt, after his death in 1919.

#1 PHOTO Gifford Pinchot and Allegheny National Forest

3. Linking the National Recreation Trails of the Delaware Raritan Canal State Park (designated as a NRT on May 22, 1992) to the Seaway Trail, Pennsylvania (designated as a NRT on October 2, 1991). Also U.S. Route 6 traverses within 6 miles of Longhouse National Scenic Byway (Designated in September, 1991 by the U.S. Forest Service as a Scenic Byway). U.S. Route 6 was dedicated as a National Recreation Trail on July 27, 1994.

5. Linking the Pennsylvania Industrial Heritage of coal (Lackawanna and Wayne Counties); timber (Potter, McKean, and Warren counties); and oil (Crawford County). Route 6, in Pennsylvania, also links the agricultural heritage of the Northern Tier of Pennsylvania.
- From the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:
6. Zane Grey (1872-1939) from Pike County, the eastern segment of U.S. Route 6 in Pennsylvania, was the prolific author of western novels.
7. Zebulon Montgomery Pike for whom Pike County is named, discovered Pikes Peak in the West and approximately 100 miles from U.S. Route 6, in Colorado.
8. The first locomotive (1829), the "Stourbridge Lion" operated in Honesdale (Wayne County) and started the beginning of railroading which went on to open "The Great West" with the laying of the Union Pacific Railroad. The UP originated in Omaha, Nebraska (on U.S. Route 6) and was the first transcontinental railroad in the United States.

9. Oil first struck in Crawford County (1859) and the beginning of the Industrial Revolution throughout the United States.

#6 PHOTO DRAKE WELL

10. General "Mad" Anthony Wayne for whom Wayne County is named is also the founder of Fort Wayne, Indiana in the Midwest, South of U.S. Route 6 approximately 30 miles.

11. General Thomas L. Kane, was Pennsylvania's first volunteer for the Civil War. Kanesville, Iowa, now Council Bluffs was named in his honor. Also, Kane County, Illinois, 20 miles North of U.S. Route 6, was also named after this famous Civil War soldier and founder of the "Bucktail" Regiment. This friend of the Mormons is honored in Salt Lake City, Utah (on U.S. Route 6) by the Mormons and at the State Capitol Rotunda.

#7 PHOTO GENERAL THOMAS L. KANE and MEMORIAL CHAPEL

12. John Brown, abolitionist who lived in Crawford County, Pennsylvania longer than any other location, assembled a multitude of renegades in Iowa City, Iowa (on U.S. Route 6) prior to his raid on Harpers Ferry.

13. Horace Greely, who resided in Corry (Erie County) for a short time, is credit with the famous saying, "Go West".

OTHER U.S. Route 6 and "East-West" Connections:

14. Near the eastern terminus of U.S. Route 6 is the Pilgrim Monument at Plymouth Massachusetts marking the site of the first landing in 1620 and near the western terminus is the bluff at Long Beach, California overlooking the bay where Juan Rodriquez Cabrillo first saw this shore in 1541.

15. Transcontinentally, U.S. Route 6 has an East-West longitudinal change of 49 degrees.

Dear Robert;

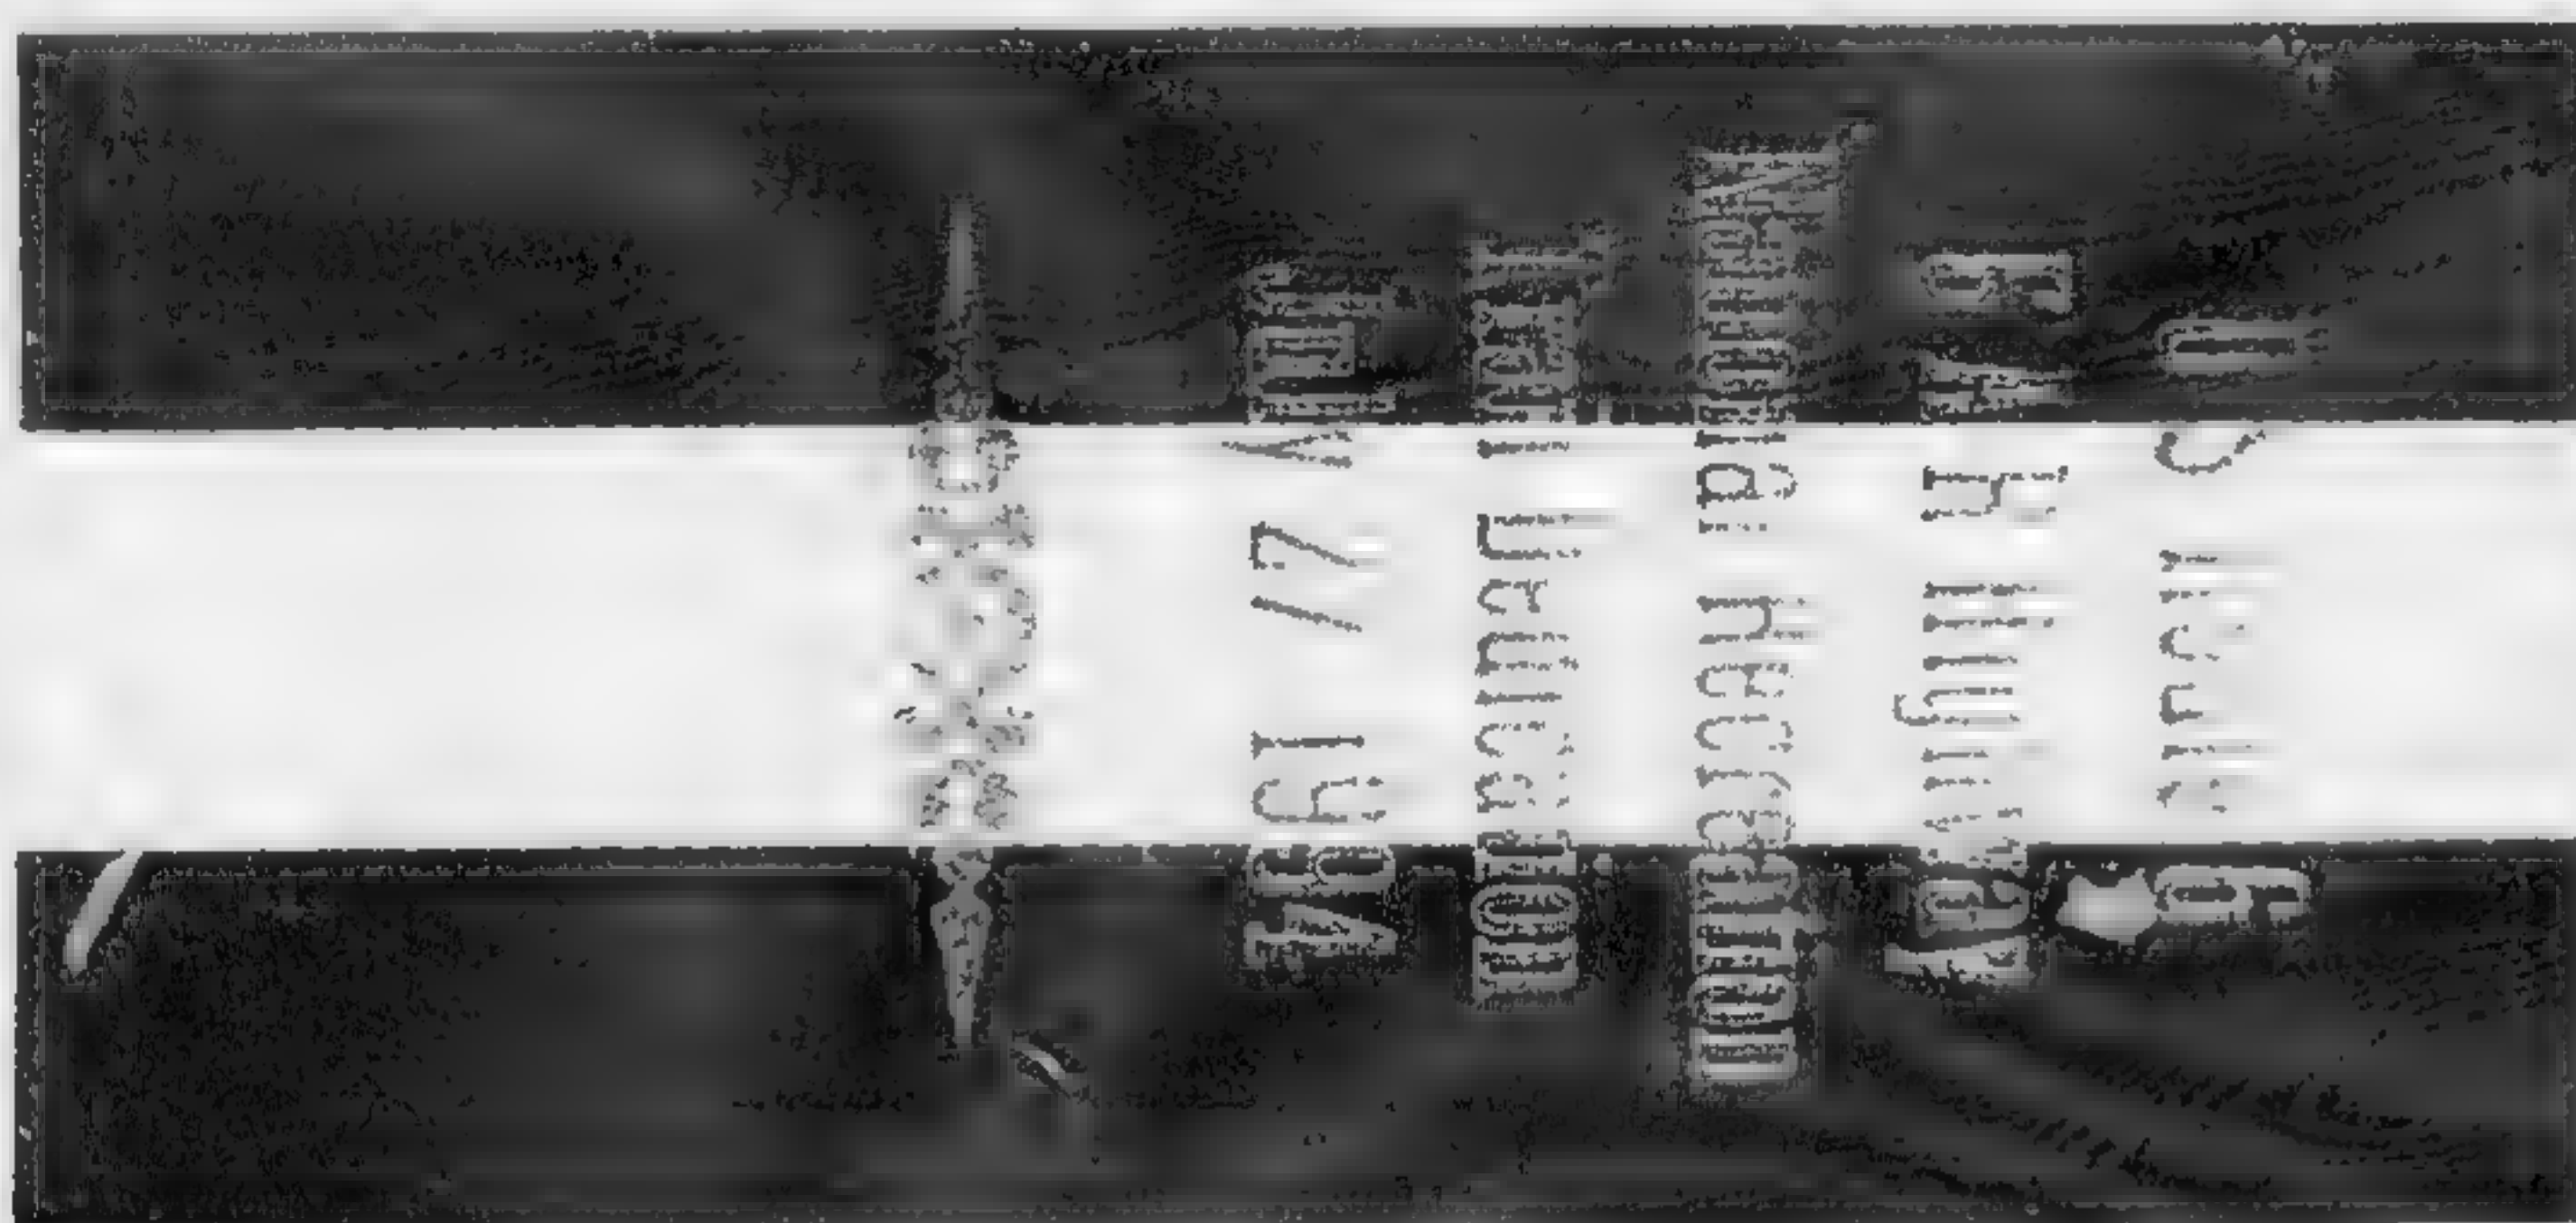

For all of us that had a part in the making of history and the continued development of U.S. Route 6, Grand Army of the Republic Highway as a Scenic Byway, I extend my personal appreciation for the role that you played at the National Recreation Trail Dedication at Denton Hill on July 27, 1994. This is another milestone for Pennsylvania's MOST Scenic Byway.

Your role as Abraham Lincoln greatly contributed to a fun and exciting day. Without your help, this event would not have had the level of success that we all enjoyed and should be remembered for some time. Everything went smoothly, thanks to your participation.

Thank you again for being part of the history made on July 27, 1994.

Sincerely,

Dear Program Chairman:

The faculty and staff of The Pennsylvania State University's Worthington Scranton Campus have published the Speakers Bureau brochure to provide speakers and expertise to the citizens of Northeastern Pennsylvania. We are proud of our history of service to local communities and are pleased to continue offering enrichment through the Speakers Bureau.

The 1994-95 Speakers Bureau consists of 43 academic and professional men and women who are experts in their respective fields. They are prepared to offer an interesting and informative presentation.

If you wish to schedule a speaker or have an inquiry concerning the Speakers Bureau, please phone the University Relations Office at (717) 963-4459 between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

In order to allow sufficient time for proper arrangements, we ask that you call at least two weeks before your meeting date. It is necessary to have the exact date, time and location of the engagement available at the time of request. We would also encourage you to have a second choice of speaker, if possible. The Campus will make every effort to accommodate your needs. As a community service of the University, there is no charge for the use of the Speakers Bureau.

We hope you will find the Worthington Scranton Campus Speakers Bureau to be a valuable resource for your group. We look forward to serving you and thank you for your interest.

Sincerely,

Eileen J. Soranno

Robert Powell

Just a note to say thank you for spending time talking to us during fair time. It's nice to meet someone who is truly interested in improving the quality of the birds and willing to share tips on management. We are looking forward to the Bloomsburg Auction and hope to see you there.

Again thank you for all the help.

In Memoriam

CECIL E. ROSE
1899 - 1994

Cecil Rose lived a very long and a very productive life. A big part of his life centered around Harford Fair.

Cecil started coming to the Fair at a very young age, and may have attended more Fairs than any other person. He started exhibiting at age 13, bringing horses and poultry. His interest in poultry grew until he averaged bringing 150 show birds each year. He also entered many other shows, and was very well known throughout both Pennsylvania and New York for the quality of his birds.

After joining the Harford Agricultural Society in 1951, Cecil became a board member in 1958 and served as President from 1965 to 1978. He was also Poultry Superintendent for many years.

With his wife Mary, who survives, Cecil gave liberally of both time and money to improve the buildings and grounds of the Fair. We truly appreciate all they have done over the years.

It would take a book to list all of Cecil's accomplishments. He leaves a legacy that will not be equalled.

Dear Mr. Falk,
I am pleased to learn that you are interested in doing paintings of some of my birds.

Many of my birds are now in the poultry show at the
New York State Fair. They will all be back next week. Tuesdays and Thursdays are fairly open days for me.
Possibly you could take some photographs on Thursday,
Sept. 8 or Tues., Sept. 13th?

2903

If neither of those days is good for you, how about

3 PM on 9/9 (Friday) or
3 PM on 9/12 (Monday).

I am usually home in the evening about 8 PM. Phone me (282-5197) and I'll give you directions on how to get to my place.

Sincerely,

on 8/29-30. No of my

Partridge Rock here was named Champion Large Fowl;
one of my Silver Sebright
here was named Champion

I am, as they say, on

September 11, 1994

Dear Robert,

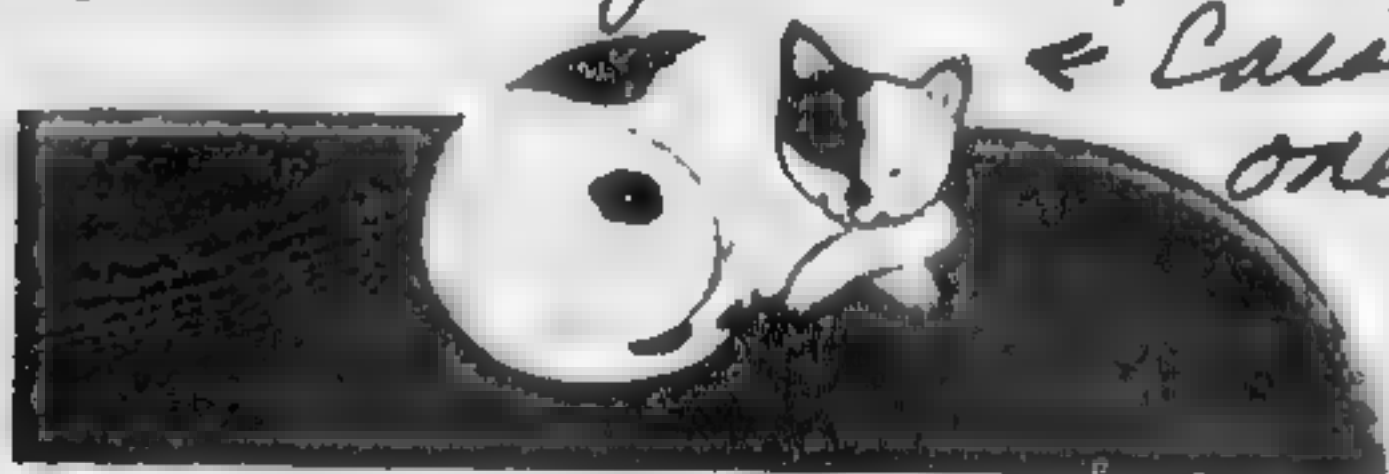

There's finally something new here so I thought I'd drop you a line. Normally, there's nothing to write about.

It's nothing earth-shattering. Just that my mother sold her co-op and is moving to a condo in West Palm Beach, FL. immediately. We're waiting for the coop to close; the condo is in contract.

She only got about half of what it was worth when she bought it, but she paid so little that she still more than doubled the investment. It was a lot of work, though - both were private sales so there weren't even any real estate agents to help out. We didn't get things exactly right because we got rid of her furniture & then the closing was postponed so he's been living for the past 2 weeks with only a bed & a T.V. It's funny but it's not very comfortable.

Anyway, looks like I'll be more alone here than ever. I won't even be able to visit since my bird, Max, is in pretty bad shape & Cassandra is so wild, no one can take care of her.

So, it would be

nice if you could drop me a line. I'd really like to know what's become of you. I hope you get this letter; I don't know where you are.

I still have my job but they have laid people off & altho the company is doing well the L.I. region isn't. They closed one of the Long Island offices and they're planning to close another one. I'm not ~~for~~ looking forward to looking for a job at this age. I don't love my job but.... If I get laid off, I'll just sell the house and get out of here. Any ideas about a good place to live? Long Island is the pits.

I like having the house but not the fact that I don't have enough money to do anything with it. I'm still paying off the stuff I did 3 years ago when I first got it! I just hope nothing breaks.

So I hope everything is ok with you and your family. And I hope to hear from you soon.

Love,
Druyl

Tower takes a hit

*Floor collapses in Carbondale City Hall
tower, damaging clock faces.*

By Bob Tomaine
UPVALLEY/BUREAU CHIEF

CARBONDALE — A floor in the City Hall tower collapsed early Monday, damaging the four faces of the building's clock but apparently causing no major structural problems.

City Engineer Dennis Kutch, who inspected the tower following the collapse, said a portion of the seventh floor dropped onto the sixth, which houses the clock. As it fell, he said, it pulled the shafts and hands of the clock through the faces.

"It was about 2 a.m.," said City Manager Jim Burke. "The police heard a loud crash, and when they investigated, they found it. They contacted the Fire Department, and firemen went up there when it became light to take a look."

He said the broken clock face was the only access for inspection before debris was removed from a trap door. Kutch said the floor below the clock chamber — "level 3" in the tower — is supporting the weight of the debris.

"It's fine," he said. "We checked that really closely."

"But now we go from level 3 to level 5 (the eighth floor) without any effective diaphragm. What we're saying — and I don't think it's an emergency situation but it's something that ought to be taken care of as soon as we can — is that we ought to get some kind of diaphragm at level 4. Level 4 is effectively not there anymore."

Level 4 is the seventh floor, above the clock, and Kutch said about one third of its joists have failed. He said he will recommend installation of either a steel grid or wood framework in place of the floor to provide the necessary support to the tower walls.

Kutch said the bell on the eighth floor is supported by steel beams and was not affected. "It doesn't look like there was significant damage to anything else as a result of the collapse," he said. "There's no cracking in the bricks, and level 3 is in good shape."

Burke said city crews will cover the clock faces as quickly as possible to prevent any loose glass from falling to the ground. The area around the front and sides of the building has been blocked with police tape, and the side door is being used.

City Hall's restoration —

"The only good thing we can say," Burke observed, "is that this is somewhat good timing. It just indicates that the work has to be done."

"People who still don't believe the building has to be repaired have the perfect indication that it does."

estimated at $2 to $2.5 million — is to be funded with $750,000 from a $2 million bond issue, as well as various grants. Advertisements for requests for proposals on architectural and engineering on the project appeared in Monday's newspa-repaired have the perfect indication that it does. It's only going to get worse if it's not addressed now."

City fire truck driver Tom Brennan said the tower's fire alarm horn was also damaged but is repairable. He said the damage was mainly to piping for the compressed air which operates the horn, and does not affect the overall system.

Brennan, who handles day-to-day maintenance on the clock and was involved with efforts to restore it to operation in the 1980s, said the motor and mechanism appear repairable, despite the fact they bore the brunt of the impact as the debris fell. The motor is in the center of the sixth-floor room, with a shaft extending out to each of the four faces.

City Hall as it stands today was completed in 1894, with the addition of the three-story wing and tower along Main Street. The rear two-story section was built after an 1869 fire which destroyed the first building on the site.

The clock was installed in 1917 as a gift from Thomas Durfee.

Re: Course Approvals for Comparative Literature

I am pleased to have received your request to transfer your Humanities course approval to Comp Lit, and I would hereby like to welcome you to the CES Comp Lit faculty. This memo will approve you for Comp Lit 1, 2, and 100, as suggested on your request-form. I'll send a copy of this memo to Margaret Lyday, who will update the College records accordingly — no further paperwork on your part is necessary.

Along with this memo I'm sending a copy of the Curricular Affairs paperwork that we used the last time we processed a curriculum change for the courses mentioned above. Usually, this most recent curriculum change occurred a couple of years ago, when the University's Cultural Diversity list was established and we submitted most of our basic courses for Diversity Focused or Diversity Enhanced status. As you may know, the Faculty Senate's most recent action will discontinue the Diversity Enhanced category, but I thought you'd like to see our most recent curriculum paperwork pertinent to your courses in any case.

Also, I don't want to deluge you with paperwork, but if you'd like to see several recent syllabi for your courses, please call Tami Foster at 814 863-0589 and she'll pull some out of the file for you.

Finally, I realize that you may not find an ideal "fit" between the course description material that is enclosed, and your own interests in teaching literature with an international perspective. Let me know if not. It's possible that what you'd like to teach can nevertheless be accommodated within the course description. Or perhaps a different Comp Lit course would work better for you. Or maybe it's time for us to revise some of our existing courses, and we'd welcome your input in that process if so.

I hope that you'll be scheduled to teach one of these courses soon. My colleagues and I look forward to continuing to work with you.

S. Robert Powell;

I recieved your letter today. I've been getting alot of calls and letters pertaining to our secretary. If you have recieved your latest Poultry Press you might have seen the ad on the front page. The A.P.A. is currently taking resumes for the office of Sec/Tres.

We realize how important that office is, it's the lifeline of the A.P.A.. The membership is very upset and Mrs. Halbach realized that something has to be done. The position will be appointed at Columbus, Ohio. It is our hope that this will spark new interest from the current members

I know how you feel, about the brochures, I couldn't get any either.

Thank you for your letter, and interest, I appreciate it.

Please let me know if I can ever help, in any way.

Yours,

Bart

TO:

Robert,

Great to hear you want to show with us. There's no problem with arriving late. However, there is a fair rule about vehicles on the grounds after 9:30 AM each day. So would it be possible for you to arrive early in the am on 28th or 29th. My whole crew can provide all the help you need. If not I will try to arrange an escort through the grounds for you when you arrive.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed is an article about the Cecil Rose Memorial Trophies at the New York State Fair, 1994.

A two-part article on Cecil and Mary Rose of Montrose was published in THE SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY INDEPENDENT in 1989 (April 27, pp. 1, 27-28; May 11, p. 24).

If I can provide you with any additional information about Cecil Rose and/or these trophies, I shall be pleased to do so.

Sincerely,

CECIL ROSE MEMORIAL TROPHIES AT SYRACUSE FAIR WON BY AREA POULTRY FANCIER

The late Cecil E. Rose (1889-1994) of Montrose is one of the legendary figures in the history of exhibition poultry in the northeastern United States. In 1914, at the Montrose Fair, he won his first blue ribbon on a chicken. For the following eight decades he bred and exhibited dozens of breeds and varieties of birds at poultry shows and fairs, primarily in Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey. He was superintendent of the Poultry Building at the Harford Fair for generations. At this year's Harford Fair, in his honor, the poultry building on the Harford Fairgrounds was named the "Cecil Rose Poultry Barn."

Two trophies, in memory of Cecil Rose, were among the awards offered at the 1994 New York State Fair in the poultry department. Both trophies were won by S. Robert Powell, Carbondale. The first of those trophies, "The Cecil Rose Memorial Trophy for the Grand Champion Standard Male," was won by Powell on a Rose Comb Rhode Island Red cock. The second trophy, "The Cecil Rose Memorial Trophy for the Best Plymouth Rock Standard," was won by Powell on a Partridge Plymouth Rock hen, which was also named Grand Champion Standard Chicken of the 1994 New York State Fair. The second trophy was donated by John Hayes, Mt. Upton, NY, who was a friend of Cecil Rose's for many years.

Both of the birds with which Powell won the Cecil Rose memorial trophies at this year's New York State Fair were exhibited by Powell at this year's Harford Fair where they were among the show champions: the Rhode Island Red cock was named Champion Particolored Standard male, the Partridge Plymouth Rock hen was named Champion Particolored Standard female and Grand Champion of the Show.

The poultry show at the New York State Fair is the largest in the state of New York. At this year's fair, over 1,000 standard chickens were exhibited. In addition, there were, in the show: 650 bantam chickens, 384 ducks, 145 geese, 55 guinea fowl, 50 ornamental pheasants, 600 pigeons and 10 turkeys.

In addition to his lifelong interest in exhibition poultry, Cecil Rose was an active member of the Harford Agricultural Society. In 1951, he was elected to its Board of Directors and he served the Society in that capacity for 31 years. For 14 years, he was President of the Board of Directors. A biographical portrait of Cecil Rose and his wife, Mary, was published in THE SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY INDEPENDENT in 1989 (April 27, pp. 1, 27-28; May 11, p. 24) on the occasion of Cecil Rose's 90 birthday.

Mr. John Pierce
3832 Makyes Road
Syracuse, NY 13215

Dear John:

Here is a DRAFT of an article on the Poultry Show at this year's NYS Fair. Please feel free to make any changes that you feel are necessary and/or desirable to this draft. If there is anything that should be added, please let me know. Be assured that I will not be troubled by any changes that you recommend.

I think that we should aim at getting this article (or a reworking of this article, as the case may be) and some photographs to POULTRY PRESS in a couple weeks: certainly before October 7th.

Also enclosed is the copy for what I think would be a good space ad to accompany the article. The ad would be three columns wide and about 10 inches high. The ad will probably cost about $150. Maybe the NYS Fair will come up with some or all of that? If not, I will put up $100 and I think that others will be willing to put up the rest. At Bath on Sunday, John Rebhahn said he would put up $20; I believe that Roger and Paul also indicated that they would be willing to contribute. Dick Waldau said that he would contribute. Maybe if you show the proposed space ad to the appropriate officials at the NYS Fair, they will be willing to put up the cash?

I'll telephone you towards the end of next week to see where we stand. I am going to show some birds at the Bloomsburg Fair this year, which means that I will not be able to make it up to Cobleskill since cooping in at Bloomsburg is on the 25th.

Best Regards,

S. Robert Powell

THE POULTRY SHOW AT THE 1994 NEW YORK STATE FAIR

By S. Robert Powell

2934

The poultry building on the New York State Fairgrounds in Syracuse is a magnificent survivor of an age when agricultural expositions were conducted on a grand scale. To walk into the building is exhilarating in the same way that to enter a Gothic cathedral or a large urban train station from the nineteenth century is exhilarating. You know in an instant that you have entered an immense interior space in which important, extraordinary and larger-than-life experiences are not uncommon.

The building, erected in 1913, is a vast rectangular structure with a wide exposition balcony that completely surrounds the interior space. At the balcony level, the building is surrounded by windows. Clerestory windows in the main roof of the building, in addition, allow an abundance of natural light to illuminate both the balcony and the main exposition floor. The interior space is immense, but not overpowering, primarily because the exposition space is divided into two levels: the main exposition floor and the balcony. A wonderful feature of the building is that one can, from the balcony, look down on thousands of show cages.

The large cages on the main floor are double-tiered. The smaller cages on the balcony are two, three, or four levels high. In those cages, at the 1994 New York State Fair, sixty-one exhibitors showed the following: over 1,000 standard chickens, over 650 bantam chickens, 384 ducks, 145 geese, 55 guinea fowl, over 50 ornamental pheasants, 600 pigeons, 10 turkeys, and almost 1,000 rabbits. The Superintendent of the Poultry Building, John Pierce, reported that when he started showing bantams in the 1950's that there were sometimes 2,000 bantams in the show and that it was possible to exhibit as many as 11,000 birds and animals in the building at one time. John Pierce remarked: "We have the largest show in New York state of standard chickens, over 1,000 birds. " The Poultry Building on the New York State Fairgrounds in Syracuse could easily house a poultry exposition such as the national meet of the APA or the ABA.

The task of judging the poultry show this year, in which there were nearly 3,000 birds, was assigned to George Schroeder (Prompton, PA), Ernie Durb (Wilmington, MA), Jerry Yeaw (Nort Scituate, RI), and Truman Stone (Wake, VA). The bantams, waterfowl, and Guinea Fowl were judged on August 29th; the standard chickens were judged on August 30th and the show champions were then selected.

The big winner was Roland Romig, whose Brown China young gander was Grand Champion Goose, Grand Champion Waterfowl, and Grand Champion of the Show. The other big winner of the day was S. Robert Powell who had (1) Grand Champion Standard Chicken on a Partridge Plymouth Rock hen, (2) Grand Champion Bantam Chicken on a Silver Sebright hen, and (3) Grand Champion Guinea Fowl on a Pearl cock. The Grand Champion Pheasant was a Golden Pheasant cock, shown by Anthony Carvelli III.

Eight memorial trophies were awarded at the show: (1) Cecil Rose Memorial Trophy for Grand Champion Standard Male to S. Robert Powell on a Rose Comb Rhode Island Red cock, (2) Robert S. Turner Memorial Trophy for Grand Champion Standard Female to S. Robert Powell on a Partridge Plymouth Rock hen, (3) W. Joe McQueeney Memorial Trophy for Grand Champion Bantam Female to S. Robert Powell on a Silver Sebright hen, (4) Gus Braun Memorial Trophy for Grand Champion Bantam Male to John Hayes on a White Plymouth Rock cock, (5) Charles Burmaster Memorial Trophy for Champion Breeder Pen to Fred and Nancy Herrick on Silver Sebrights, (6) Alex Duffy^{Memorial} Trophy for Champion Standard or Bantam Cochin to Rudy Brouillette on a standard Black Cochin cock, (7) Robert G. "Doc" Morris Memorial Plaque for Best Dorking, donated by John Hayes, to Rev. Roland Romig on a Colored Dorking hen, and (8) Cecil Rose Memorial Trophy for Best Standard Plymouth Rock, donated by John Hayes, to S. Robert Powell on a Partridge Plymouth Rock hen.

Throughout the Fair, there is a succession of events going on in the Poultry Building, through which pass between 10 and 20 thousand visitors daily. A rooster crowing contest is held daily for eleven days, followed by a championship class in rooster crowing. Paul Jones, Oneida, NY, was the winner this year, with a 10-year old standard Brown Red Old English Game. Second place was won by Don Ternosky; third by Paul Jones. A Most Beautiful Chicken contest is held annually, with the winner chosen by a prominent local celebrity. This year the winner was chosen by Mike Price, Channel 9. He selected a Mille Fleurs Uccle Belgian hen that was shown by Richard and Thola Waldau, Constantia, NY. The same bird, we should add, was selected by the judges of the show as the Champion Feather Legged Female in the show. Richard and Thola Waldau, who have been raising Uccle Belgians for 11 years, also had Champion Feather Legged Male on a Mille Fleurs Uccle Belgian and First Old Trio in the show on the same breed.

One of the special features of the building is the elegant waterfowl pond that is located in the center of the main exposition floor. Benches surround the pond and they are in continual use by spectators as they relax and enjoy the sights and sounds of the show. Over 30 wild and exotic waterfowl were in the pond this year in an impressive display arranged by Paul Brown and Larry Dishaw.

A very visible figure in the Poultry Building during the Fair was John Rebhahn, Syracuse, NY. He is the well known breeder of standard and bantam Modern Games and standard Speckled Sussex. His contributions to the smooth-running efficiency and success of the show were many. Another prominent figure in the Poultry Building during the Fair was Arthur Schallenberg, Westernville, NY. Arthur Schallenberg is the well known and respected APA Judge and Superintendent Emeritus of the New York State Fair. He exhibited four of the class champions at this year's show: Champion Mediterranean Male on a Single Comb Black Minorca cock, Champion Mediterranean Female on a Single Comb White Leghorn pullet, Champion English Male on a Black Orpington cock, and Champion All Other Standard Breeds Male on a Silver Phoenix cock.

The 1994 New York State Fair Poultry Show was, by all accounts, a very successful show, and much of the credit for that success goes to Show Superintendent, John Pierce (Syracuse, NY), Assistant Superintendent, Roger Davis (Verona, NY), and Cooping Superintendent, Robert Richie (Rome, NY) and their dedicated and conscientious staff. Throughout the Fair, the birds were carefully looked after by the large and efficient staff, who graciously assisted exhibitors coop in and coop out. Poultry nutrition specialist, Paul A. Jones, Oneida, NY, personally fed, morning and night, all of the poultry in the show throughout the Fair. The future of exhibition poultry at The Great New York State Fair appears to be very bright.

Mr. S. Robert Powell
R.R.#1, Box 2392
Carbondale, Pa.

Dear Mr. Powell,

We wish to say a special thank you for bringing in extra chickens and the guineas for exhibit for our show. Unusual displays help to arouse curiosity and gives the spectators more to enjoy.

Your interest in helping to make our show at the Bloomsburg Fair such a success is much appreciated.

Yours truly,

PAUL D. Slusser,

THE POULTRY SHOW AT THE 1994 NEW YORK STATE FAIR By New York State Fair Staff

The poultry building on the New York State Fairgrounds in Syracuse is a magnificent survivor of an age when agricultural expositions were conducted on a grand scale. To walk into the building is exhilarating in the same way that to enter a Gothic cathedral or a large urban train station from the nineteenth century is exhilarating. You know in an instant that you have entered an immense interior space in which important, extra-ordinary and larger-than-life experiences are not uncommon.

The building, erected in 1913, is a vast rectangular structure with a wide exposition balcony that completely surrounds the interior space. At the balcony level, the building is surrounded by windows. Clerestory windows in the main roof of the building, in addition, allow an abundance of natural light to illuminate both the balcony and the main exposition floor. The interior space is immense, but not overpowering, primarily because the exposition space is divided into two levels: the main exposition floor and the balcony. A wonderful feature of the building is that one can, from the balcony, look down on thousands of show cages.

The large cages on the main floor are double-tiered. The smaller cages on the balcony are two, three, or four levels high. In those cages, at the 1994 New York State Fair, sixty-one exhibitors showed the following: over 1,000 standard chickens, over 650 bantam chickens, 384 ducks, 145 geese, 55 guinea fowl, over 50 ornamental pheasants, 600 pigeons, 10 turkeys, and almost 1,000 rabbits. The Superintendent of the Poultry Building, John Pierce, reported that when he started showing bantams in the 1950's that there were sometimes 2,000 bantams in the show and that it was possible to exhibit as many as 11,000 birds and animals in the building at one time. John Pierce remarked: "We have the largest show in New York state of standard chickens, over 1,000 birds." The Poultry Building on the New York State Fairgrounds in Syracuse could easily house a poultry exposition such as the national meet of the APA or the ABA.

The task of judging the poultry show this year, in which there were nearly 3,000 birds, was assigned to George Schroeder (Prompton, PA), Ernie Durb (Wilmington, MA), Jerry Yeaw (North Scituate, RI), and Truman Stone (Wake, VA). The bantams, waterfowl, and Guinea Fowl were judged on August 29th; the standard chickens were judged on August 30th and the show champions were then selected.

The big winner was Roland Romig, whose Brown China young gander was Grand Champion Goose, Grand Champion Waterfowl, and Grand Champion of the Show. The other big winner of the day was S. Robert Powell who had (1) Grand Champion Standard Chicken on a Partridge Plymouth Rock hen, (2) Grand Champion Bantam Chicken on a Silver Sebright hen, and (3) Grand Champion Guinea Fowl on a Pearl cock. The Grand Champion Pheasant was a Golden Pheasant cock, shown by Anthony Carvelli III.

Eight special trophies were awarded at the show: (1) Cecil Rose Memorial Trophy for Grand Champion Standard Male to S. Robert Powell on a Rose Comb Rhode Island Red cock, (2) Robert S. Turner Memorial Trophy for Grand Champion Standard Female to S. Robert Powell on a Partridge Plymouth Rock hen, (3) W. Joe McQueeney Memorial Trophy for Grand Champion Bantam Female to S. Robert Powell on a Silver Sebright hen, (4) Gus Braun Memorial Trophy for Grand Champion Bantam Male to John Hayes on a White Plymouth Rock cock, (5) Charles Burmaster Memorial Trophy for Champion

Breeder Pen to Fred and Nancy Herrick on Silver Sebrights, (6) Alex Duffy Trophy for Champion Standard or Bantam Cockin to Rudy Brouillette on a standard Black Cockin cock, (7) Robert G. "Doc" Morris Memorial Plaque for Best Dorking, donated by John Hayes, to Rev. Roland Romig on a Colored Dorking hen, and (8) Cecil Rose Memorial Trophy for Best Standard Plymouth Rock, donated by John Hayes, to S. Robert Powell on a Partridge Plymouth Rock hen.

Throughout the Fair, there is a succession of events going on in the Poultry Building, through which pass between 10 and 20 thousand visitors daily. A rooster crowing contest is held daily for eleven days, followed by a championship class in rooster crowing. Paul Jones, Oneida, NY, was the winner this year, with a 10-year old standard Brown Red Old English Game. Second place was won by Don Ternosky; third by Paul Jones. A Most Beautiful Chicken contest is held annually, with the winner chosen by a prominent local celebrity. This year the winner was chosen by Mike Price, Channel 9 TV. He selected a Mille Fleurs Uccle Belgian hen that was shown by Richard and Thola Waldau, Constantia, NY. The same bird, we should add, was selected by the judges of the show as the Champion Feather Legged Female in the show. Richard and Thola Waldau, who have been raising Uccle Belgains for 11 years, also had Champion Feather Legged Male on a Mille Fleurs Uccle Belgian and First Old Trio in the show on the same breed.

One of the special features of the building is the elegant waterfowl pond that is located in the center of the main exposition floor. Benches surround the pond and they are in continual use by spectators as they relax and enjoy the sights and sounds of the show. Over 30 wild and exotic waterfowl were in the pond this year in an impressive display arranged by Paul Brown and Larry Dishaw.

A very visible figure in the Poultry Building during the Fair was John Pebhann, Syracuse, NY. He is the well known breeder of standard and bantam Modern Games and standard Speckled Sussex. His contributions on the smooth-running efficiency and success of the show were many. Another prominent figure in the Poultry Building during the Fair was Arthur Schallenberg.

Westernville, NY. Arthur Schallenberg is the well known and respected APA Judge and Superintendent Emeritus of the New York State Fair. He exhibited four of the class champion at this year's show: Champion Mediterranean Male on a Single Comb Black Minorca cock, Champion Mediterranean Female on a Single Comb white Leghorn pullet, Champion English Male on a Black Orpington cock, and Champion All Other Standard Breeds Male on a Silver Phoenix cock.

The 1994 New York State Fair Poultry Show was, by all accounts, a very successful show, and much of the credit for the success goes to Show Superintendent, John Pierce (Syracuse, NY) and his dedicated and conscientious staff: Assistant Superintendent, Roger Davis (Verona, NY), and Cooping Superintendent, Robert Richie (Rome, NY). Throughout the Fair, the birds were carefully looked after by the large and efficient staff, who graciously assisted exhibitors coop in and coop out. Poultry nutrition specialist, Paul A. Jones, Oneida, NY, personally fed, morning and night, all of the poultry in the show throughout the Fair. The future of exhibition poultry at The Great New York State Fair appears to be very bright.

Dear John,

My check from the State of New York for premiums won at the Fair is not for the correct amount. I notified Mary Ellen of the discrepancy in the calculations on 9/20/94, but no action appears to have been taken on her part. Today I received a check for $198, which is incorrect. Copies of all supporting material are enclosed.

Sincerely,

Robert Powell

Dear Poultry Exhibitor:

In reviewing the payment of premiums to the Poultry Department, it was discovered that some exhibitors received checks for the wrong amounts. The error was in the computer program due to changes that were made for 1994.

Your premium check was short by $54.⁰⁰. Vouchers have been processed for this amount. It will be approximately two to three weeks before you receive these checks.

We are sorry for any inconvenience this may cause.

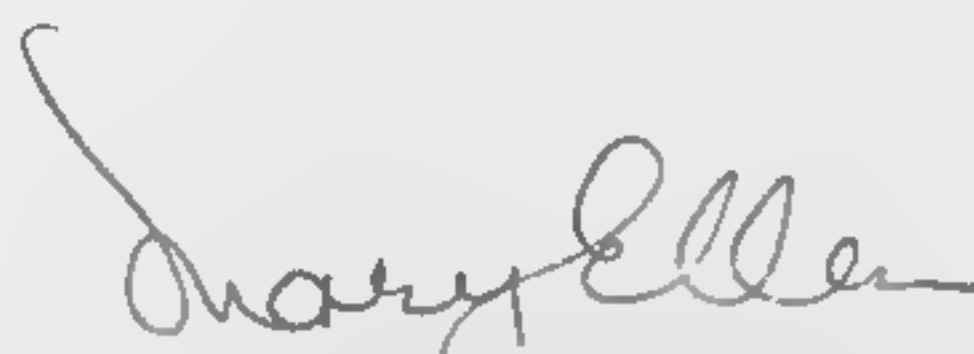

Sincerely,

Dear John —

Received a second check today from the State of NY for fair premium + prizes. Everything is now in perfect order, as I see it. Thanks for your quick action to solve the problem. I appreciate it.

The November Poetry Press should be out any day now. I am very anxious to see if the NY State Fair article & report of ^{poetry} winners is included therein.

Best regards,

Robert

Dear Bob:

Thanks again to you and to the hard working active members of the TTPC for a wonderful show. The new cages for the standards, the new waterfowl section, the very nicely organized Chinese auction and sales' area, the generous quantity of plaques and ribbons, the friendly and relaxed atmosphere, the bountiful and delicious breakfast, the good competition and judging ALL made the day very enjoyable. I didn't hear any complaints from anyone about anything!

Enclosed are my check for $14 and copy for an ad in the space ad that the TTPC takes out in POULTRY PRESS.

I would like to be at the TTPC auction on 9/17, but I have to work and can not get away.

Best regards,

Dear Ms Muldoon:

Enclosed is a check for $1,000 representing first payment of a $3,000 contribution to the Carbondale Public Library capital fund from Akzo Nobel Salt, Inc. Akzo Nobel will make a similar contribution in each of the next two years. Please notify Marty Langan that the check has arrived.

I am personally pleased that Akzo Nobel is able to make this contribution. All of us in the up-valley appreciate the services you provide and look forward to the day the new library opens.

Very truly yours,

Margaret L Winter

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AVIAN CLUB

NEWSLETTER

OCTOBER — NOVEMBER 1994

Editor: S. ROBERT POWELL
PH. 717-282-5197
R.D. 1, BOX 40
CARBONDALE, PA 18407

FROM THE EDITOR

October and November are very busy--and very enjoyable--poultry months for most of us. In addition to the poultry chores that all of us must do as we prepare for the arrival of winter and next year's breeding season, there are the fall poultry shows. It's a lot of work, to be sure, but I think it is important that we all remember that we are involved with exhibition poultry not because we have to, but because we choose to.

There is lots to read in this issue of the NEWSLETTER. I have made a concerted effort to be comprehensive in my reporting on CPAC events and shows by other poultry clubs in which CPAC members have participated. If I have omitted your name in a report in which you should have been mentioned, please let me know and I will give credit where it is due and/or report on a win that you had that I overlooked or was unaware of in the next issue of the CPAC NEWSLETTER.

It is important that we have a good turn out of members at the December 11th meeting of the CPAC (see article on page 4, column 2 for details on time and location of meeting). The most important item on the agenda for that meeting is the nomination of officers and directors of the CPAC for 1995. At that meeting, all of us should also pay our dues for the coming year: $5 junior membership, $7 individual membership, $10 family membership. If you would like to mail your 1995 dues to the Treasurer, his address is as follows: Wally Casazza, R. R. 9, Box 140, Bloomsburg, PA 17815.

See you at Hughesville on December 11th.

S. Robert Powell

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

4. ROBERT SIMONS and Family (Box 134, Harford, PA 18823). The Simons family raise standard and bantam Cochins. Phone: 717-434-2497.
5. SHAWN SEAY and Family (R. D. 2, Box 424, Sayre, PA 18840-9401). The Seay family raise Blue Muscovies, Khaki Campbells and others. Phone: 717-888-4624.
6. GORDON WHITESELL (R. D. 4, Box 4464A, Pottsville, PA 17901). Gordon raises bantams and Guinea Fowl. Phone: 717-366-3775.
7. RICK AAROWEG and Family (R. D. 2, Box 160, Benton, PA 17814-9565). The Aaroweg family raise Araucanas, Muscovies, and Peafowl. Phone: 717-925-2627.
8. JONATHAN ADAMS (11 South Maple Street, Elysburg, PA 17824). Jonathan raises Barred Rocks. Phone: 717-672-9745.

SEPTEMBER CPAC MEETING

The September meeting of the CPAC took place in the Poultry Building on the Bloomsburg Fairgrounds on 09-25-1994. The following club members were present: Tom Richardson, Mark D. Whitebread, Vic Corson, Craig Russell, Harold Strawser, Thomas Buss, Jr., Wally Casazza, Rose Casazza, and S. Robert Powell.

The primary item on the agenda was the upcoming CPAC auction on October 8th. Craig reported that everything appeared to be taken care of for the auction: the Harris family would be in charge of the food stand, Rev. Romig would serve as auctioneer, Briget Kane would be in charge of running the books for the auction, more than a few club members said that they would help with the set up for the auction on the Friday before the event, and several members said that they would be willing to serve as "runners" during the sale.

The CPAC will participate in "Ag Appreciation Days" at the Susquehanna Valley Mall, October 27-29. The club has been given permission to sponsor a raffle or fund raising event during the three-day event. Craig suggested that the club could make some money by providing a set up whereby members of the general public could have their picture taken either holding or standing beside a tame chicken. "All we need is a Polaroid-type camera and a few tame birds," Craig commented. The idea was brought up from the floor that perhaps there is a photography studio in the mall itself that could take the pictures, thereby freeing the club of the necessity of troubling itself with cameras and film etc. Craig said that he would get in touch immediately with the camera store in the mall. Robert Powell said that he has some tame birds that might be useful in such a project. The peak hours of activity for such a display by the CPAC at the SVM are 7-9 P.M.

The question of the time of the regular meetings of the CPAC was brought up, and Craig reported that the regular monthly meetings of the club take place on the second Sunday of the month at 1 P.M. Meetings are not held in November (there are poultry shows each weekend), January (too risky because of sudden Winter storms) and July (when the club picnic is held). Robert Powell reported that Wilma Smith had volunteered to host a meeting of the club at her house in Hughesville in November. "That's very gracious of Wilma," Craig commented, "but since we don't regularly have a November meeting, maybe Wilma will be willing to host the December meeting?"

Robert reported that he had heard from a couple club members who were interested in pigeons and those members commented that they would like to see more information on pigeons in the club NEWSLETTER. Robert said that he would be very willing to publish material relating to pigeons--if he had some to report--and asked that all club members who had material on pigeons make available to the Editor that information. Robert said that he would very much like to have a list of the winners in the pigeon show at the CPAC's May 1st show. A suggestion was made from the floor that there be a pigeon committee in the club to make sure that the interests of the members of the club who raise, fly and show pigeons are voiced.

The question of attendance at CPAC meetings and events and "active membership in the club" was brought up. The "point system" that was discussed at the July 1994 meeting was generally felt to be a good idea: members who attend meetings, participate in club events, render services to the CPAC, etc. are awarded points. After a fixed number of points are accumulated, a member is declared to be an active member. The possibility of awarding free subscriptions to POULTRY PRESS to, for example, the six members who accumulate the most points in the course of a year was discussed, and was generally felt to be a good idea. Members who were not present at the September meeting but who have ideas on the "point system" and active membership are encouraged to make known those ideas to the officers of the club.

"Dear, let's take a vacation—I think you're spending too much time with the chickens."

Mark Whitebread reported that he had recently talked with Dr. Richard Langenbach of Altamont, NY, and that Dr. Langenbach expressed his pleasure on reading the account of the New York State Fair 4-H Poultry Exhibit in the August-September 1994 issue of the CPAC NEWSLETTER. In that account, we erroneously stated that Dr. Langenbach is an APA judge. Dr. Langenbach holds an American Bantam Association license (#129 Bantam Chickens only).

The question of getting more young people involved in the hobby was brought up. It was remarked that some clubs (e.g., Garden State, Rochester) have very active and successful youth programs for poultry exhibitors. The CPAC, it was felt, should make a special effort to attract and focus on junior exhibitors in the months and years ahead. Craig remarked: "As many as 200,000 people pass through the Poultry Building during the week of the Bloomsburg Fair. Many of those spectators are young people. We've got to reach out and make contact with the potential poultry fanciers that come through this building."

Robert reported that several hundred sample copies of the club NEWSLETTER and membership applications would be in the club's display box in the poultry building throughout the fair. Wally Casazza, who works in the Poultry Building throughout the fair, said that he would make sure that the supply of NEWSLETTERS and membership applications in the box would be maintained throughout the week.

With no further business to conduct, the September meeting of the CPAC was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
S. Robert Powell

MARK YOUR CALENDAR NOW

The next CPAC meeting will take place on December 11th at 1 P.M. at Wilma Smith's (78 South Second Street) in Hughesville.

CPAC MEMBERS WIN BIG AT BLOOMSBURG FAIR September 24 - October 1, 1994:

486 standard chickens and 580 bantam chickens were exhibited and judged at this year's Bloomsburg Fair. The birds were judged by CPAC member Elton Minnich and by Dick Gruebel, who selected the following four Champions of the Show:

Champion Standard Male: Single Comb
Rhode Island Red, shown by CPAC member
Tom Buss, Jr.

Champion Standard Female: Barred Plymouth
Rock, shown by CPAC member S. Robert
Powell

Champion Bantam Male: Single Comb
Rhode Island Red, shown by Tom Buss, Jr.

Champion Bantam Female: Birchen
Modern Game, shown by S. Robert Powell

In addition to the birds that were shown and judged, there were many birds on display. CPAC members Rev. Roland Romig, Harold Strawser and Craig Russell displayed several hundred waterfowl in the pens next to the Poultry Building. Craig Russell and Harold Strawser also organized a display of 25 turkeys of several varieties. S. Robert Powell displayed Pearl Guinea Fowl.

The exhibitors of standard and bantam chickens at this year's Bloomsburg Fair were the following: Arlene Bohusz, Thomas A. Buss, Jr., Carl Harris, Betty Harris, Hilltop Game Farm, Halina Kuhns, Bradley Richard, S. Robert Powell, Carl Richard, Rev. Roland Romig, Robert Simons, Joseph Trone, Ben Maurer, and Richard Walworth.

POULTRY ISSUE?

The May 1993 issue of National Geographic's WORLD magazine is apparently about poultry. I have not seen the issue. Does anyone have a copy of the magazine that I could borrow?

SRP

CPAC NEWSLETTER, Oct/Nov 1994

CPAC MEMBERS WIN BIG AT THE BERKS POULTRY FANCIERS' SHOW on 10-09-1994:

Three of the birds on Champions' Row at the Berks Show were exhibited by CPAC members:

Champion All Other Standard Breeds: White Old English Game hen, shown by William Bender, Jr.

The show was judged by Jerry Yeaw, Gus Vinhage and CPAC member Elton Minnich.

MEMBERSHIP RENEWALS

Membership renewals are all due at the beginning of the calendar year. The following renewals have been received recently:

Robert Anke, Wayne Mensinger, William Andrasko, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fike and Florence Mathews.

When Florence Mathews renewed her membership for 1995, she enclosed the following note:

"...I am interested in raising pigeons. Any help or advice via books, periodicals, etc., would be greatly appreciated. Also, where to acquire white pigeons at a reasonable price, as my funds are limited. If you are having any up-coming fund raisers, please let me know. I would be more than happy to donate a handmade craft & food item. Sincerely, Florence Mathews."

ADDRESS CORRECTION

In the August-September NEWSLETTER, we incorrectly printed the address of Bill Bender, Jr. Here is the correct information:

Bill Bender, Jr.
Oriental & Game Farm
5242 Wasser Road
East Greenville, PA 18041

Phone: 215-679-4692

THANK YOU

BILL ROE, Montrose, PA, telephoned on 09-21-1994 to compliment the Editor on the CPAC NEWSLETTERS ("Thanks again," from SRP) and to inquire about the possibility of more information on pigeons in the CPAC NEWSLETTER.

The Editor is currently trying to get a list of the winners at this year's Wayne County Fair and Harford Fair, and those lists will be published here as soon as they are obtained. Club members who have information on pigeons to be published in the CPAC NEWSLETTER are encouraged to send that information to the Editor.

NEXT CPAC MEETING

The next meeting of the CPAC will take place on December 11th, at 1:00 P.M., at Wilma Smith's in Hughesville, PA. Her address is: 78 South Second Street, telephone: 584-2611. From I-80, take the Hughesville exit to 405 and "Y" red light; bear left and follow 405 to second red light; turn right to next cross street (2nd Street); make right to 78 South Second Street. Coming in 442, bear right at "Y" and red light and follow above directions from "Y." Coming from 220 N. or S., come to first red light, turn left and go to next cross street (2nd St.) and turn right to 78 South Second St. on right. Coming in 118, come to street before red light and make left on Second Street.

CECIL ROSE MEMORIALS

In ceremonies conducted at the opening of the 1994 Harford Fair (August 22-27, 1994), the poultry building on the Harford Fairgrounds was officially named the "Cecil Rose Poultry Barn," and a very impressive sign, made by Francis Supancik (R. D. 1, Box 145, Union Dale, PA 18470) was hung above the entrance to the building. Mr. Supancik is a member of the Board of Directors of the Harford Fair.

The 1994 Harford Fair premium book was dedicated to the memory of Cecil Rose. The dedicatory page therein is reproduced herein on p. 8. Every year, a Cecil Rose Memorial Trophy is awarded to the exhibitor who shows the Grand Champion bird in the Harford Fair poultry show. The winner this year was S. Robert Powell on a standard Partridge Plymouth Rock hen.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

At the CPAC meeting on December 11th at 1:00 P.M. at Wilma Smith's house in Hughesville, nominations for the officers and directors of the CPAC for 1995 will be accepted. Following the meeting, a ballot will be produced and mailed to all members. Space will be provided on the ballot for write-ins. Please do not nominate someone without their permission to do so. All members will send their completed ballots to the Secretary and the results of the election will be announced in the January 1995 NEWSLETTER.

THE CPAC AUCTION, 10-08-1994

Some notes and thoughts on the CPAC auction by the Editor:

A small group of people worked very hard to make the event the success that it was. Rose Casazza, Betty Harris, Brenda Martin and Seth Harris (Carl and Betty's grandson) did a great job in the food stand. I heard lots of compliments on Seth's famous grilled cheese sandwiches. Arlene Bohusz and Elton Minnich did the paper work on the auction floor. Rick Seymour marked the sales' cages with numbers and sales' prices. Briget and Tom Kane handled the cumulative bookwork as the sale progressed and checked in and out buyers and sellers. Craig Russell, Mark Whitebread, Carl and Betty Harris, Tom and Briget Kane, Wally and Rose Casazza, Leon Keeler (and possibly some others that I don't know about) set up the poultry building on Friday afternoon for the sale on Saturday morning. The runners during the sale were: Craig Russell, Mark Whitebread, S. R. Powell, Elton Minnich, Mike Angelino, Basil Smith, Tom Richardson, Chris Seymour and Bill Bender. Those who cleaned out the poultry building following the auction, on October 18th and 21st, were: Wally Casazza, Craig Russell, Leon Keeler, Carl Harris and Steve Spigelmeyer. Rev. Roland Romig was the auctioneer--and it would be hard to find anyone anywhere who could handle a poultry auction better than Rev. Romig.

Have I forgotten to mention the name of someone who helped out during the auction? I hope not, but if I have, please let me know and I will acknowledge your involvement in the auction in the next issue of the CPAC NEWSLETTER.

Not surprisingly, it was a buyer's market at the 10-08-94 auction. Everyone was selling to get ready for winter. My impression is that there were lots of birds of high quality that sold at very low prices. But what can you do? Winter is a' comin'!

I always have a good time at the auction, and, believe it or not, I enjoy being a runner. But I think that we can come up with a better system of moving the cages than we now use. Maybe we should think about the system that Twin Tier uses (sellers are required to bring their birds in boxes and the birds are sold directly from the individual boxes). If we were to adopt the Twin Tier system, we would not have the hassle of cleaning out the poultry building after the auction.

What do you think? How can we improve the auction?

Two of the birds on Champions' Row at the October 29-30, 1994 York County Poultry Fanciers' Show, held at the Fairgrounds in York, were shown by CPAC members:

The Second Eastern International Meet of Cochins International was held in conjunction with the York show. I don't have a list of the winners of that meet to hand, but I do know that CPAC members Elton Minnich, Robert Simons and George H. Schroeder were key figures in the success of that meet.

AGRICULTURE APPRECIATION DAYS

Agriculture Appreciation Days at the Susquehanna Valley Mall, just at the edge of Selinsgrove, were celebrated October 27-29. The event is sponsored by Boscov's and thousands of spectators view the many exhibits that are set up throughout the mall. The display put up by the CPAC, Craig was told by the lady from Boscov's who is in charge of the event, is the most popular one with the spectators at the mall.

What did the display consist of this year? About 30 show cages, on tables, in which were displayed a wide array of exhibition birds: standard and bantam chickens, pheasants, waterfowl, pigeons; a large glass-topped incubator with well over 100 chicken and duck eggs therein that hatched in the course of the three-day show; a duck slide/pool in which day-old ducklings "performed" to the great delight of the spectators; a large display cage of exhibition ducks and pheasants; a pen in which were shown two female pot-bellied pigs. It is possible that the display included other items, but the above description is more or less what the display consisted of (or was to consist of) on Thursday afternoon when I (SRP) arrived at the mall.

To set up, run, and disassemble such a display required a great deal of work and a lot of that work was done by Craig Russell, Wally Casazza, Harold Strawser, and Leon Keeler. On Thursday, Dave Bailey, Dale Martin and son Jonathan and SRP also helped. Very probably, other members of the club helped on Friday and Saturday, and I will get a complete report from Craig before the next CPAC NEWSLETTER and present a revised report on the CPAC's show at Agricultural Appreciation Days at the SVM in the December NEWSLETTER. For the December NEWSLETTER, I will try to get a complete list of what birds were displayed at the SVM. When the display was dis-assembled on Sunday, Craig delivered to SRP at the York Show two pairs of standard chickens that he (SRP) displayed at the SVM: a pair of Barred Rocks, and a pair of Rose Comb Rhode Island Reds.

Several hundred CPAC membership application forms and sample copies of the club NEWSLETTER were picked up by the spectators from the membership information table. It will be interesting to see if new club memberships come in as a result of the display.

SRP

An opinion by S. Robert Powell:

Martha Stewart LIVING

Martha Stewart LIVING is a deluxe, full-color-glossy magazine that sells for $3.50 per issue. The October 1994 issue contains an article (pp. 74-79) on keeping chickens (text by Brad Kessler, photographs by Victor Schrager). The article was brought to my attention by Dick and Lynda Robinson, who live on Salem Mountain, above Carbon-dale.

The article is intended for people just starting out with poultry and contains information on the history of poultry keeping, the origin of several breeds, and the characteristics of poultry in general. The article is enthusiastic and will probably result in more back-yard flocks than currently exist--which is wonderful. Several of the photographs in the article are very good: the cover of the magazine is a photograph of Martha Stewart standing in front of her chicken house and holding a white chicken (possibly an Araucana); the photograph on page 75 shows Martha Stewart standing inside her chicken coop, in which several Araucanas can be seen; the photograph on page 76 shows several varieties of eggs that are artfully displayed in front of a turned over pail; the photograph on page 78 is a good one of a standard Buff Cochin. The eight other photographs in the article are all, I would guess, intended to be very formal portraits of various kinds of chickens posed in front of backdrops. The 8 photographs in question are all, in my opinion, lamentable failures because the chickens are very visibly held by someone who sticks his hands, holding a chicken, through a curtain for the sake of the photograph. The chickens appear to be very unwilling to have their photographs taken. The forced poses are dreadful. SRP

"IN MEMORIAM" CECIL E. ROSE

The 1994 Harford Fair premium list/book was dedicated to the memory of Cecil Rose. Reproduced below is page 2 of that book.

In Memoriam

CECIL E. ROSE
1899 - 1994

Cecil Rose lived a very long and a very productive life. A big part of his life centered around Harford Fair.

Cecil started coming to the Fair at a very young age, and may have attended more Fairs than any other person. He started exhibiting at age 13, bringing horses and poultry. His interest in poultry grew until he averaged bringing 150 show birds each year. He also entered many other shows, and was very well known throughout both Pennsylvania and New York for the quality of his birds.

After joining the Harford Agricultural Society in 1951, Cecil became a board member in 1958 and served as President from 1965 to 1978. He was also Poultry Superintendent for many years.

With his wife Mary, who survives, Cecil gave liberally of both time and money to improve the buildings and grounds of the Fair. We truly appreciate all they have done over the years.

It would take a book to list all of Cecil's accomplishments. He leaves a legacy that will not be equalled.

Dear Valued Client:

The Dean Witter Reynolds Account Executive assigned to your account, Christopher Di Mattio, has left our employment to join another securities firm. You may soon receive a form from Mr. Di Mattio requesting your signature for approval to transfer your account to the new firm. The choice of transferring your account or maintaining it at Dean Witter is totally your decision. Naturally, it is our hope that you will remain with us -- you are a valued client of our firm and we very much wish to continue to serve you.

We respectfully request that BEFORE YOU SIGN any forms for the transfer of your account, you allow one of our Senior Dean Witter Account Executives the opportunity to discuss this matter with you. We believe it is important, and in your best interest, to have a clear understanding of the procedures and time involved in transferring your account.

I have personally asked one of our Dean Witter Account Executives to manage your account because of their experience, knowledge of investments, and philosophy of personal service to clients. They will be in touch with you very shortly. Dean Witter Reynolds is one of the largest and most financially responsible securities firms in the country and we are very proud of the investment services and products we offer our clients.

During the transition, if you have any questions, or if I can be of any service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me at (717) 346-7761.

Cordially,

John M. Egan

Dear Mr. Kroll:

Thank you for your letter of September 23, 1994. I appreciate your understanding and encouragement. Yes, you have my permission to send copies of my letter to you of August 31, 1994 to both Sam Brush and Chuck Oltersdorf.

I received today the 1994 ABA YEARBOOK. It's a wonderful document. I am very pleased that Eleanor Vinhage wanted to include therein my article, entitled "Meets." I was startled to discover, however, that the editor has changed the spelling and punctuation in several instances--which were correct in the copy when submitted. I don't mind in the least if an editor modifies a text, but it's another matter when an editor's "corrections" are incorrect. Most of the editor's "corrections" involve the apostrophe. The editor, I fear, does not understand the difference between the singular possessive and the plural possessive. In more than a few instances, the editor, in addition, has added an apostrophe to the possessive adjective "its," to create the very bizarre word: its' (possibly such a creation should be called the "double possessive"). Every semester, I tell my students at Penn State (where I teach Humanities and Comparative Literature) that if I were president of the university that I would require all graduating seniors to pass an exam to test their understanding of the use of the apostrophe: if you don't pass the exam, you don't graduate. As you might expect, they always give me at such times a look which says: thank God you're not the president of Penn State. An article that should be published in POULTRY PRESS (and which I would love to write) is one that could easily be titled, "The Much Maligned Apostrophe."

I wanted very much to show at Rochester, but was unable to do so because of scheduling difficulties. This Sunday, I will show at the Berks show in Reading; then York, then Garden State. It's been a great year.

My local poultry club, the Central Pennsylvania Avian Club, will hold its annual Fall auction this Saturday, and I am looking forward to that. Some years, there are as many as 500 birds in the auction. I hope that I don't do any buying this weekend!

Enclosed are some recent issues of the Central Pennsylvania Avian Club NEWSLETTER. As a poultry fancier, I'm sure that you will find them interesting to read.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Cousins,

Somehow in our process of putting together the "all volunteer" committee for the GFA Reunion in 1996, we find your names conspicuously absent. I understand that you are both very busy, but I would hope you could find time to enlist at least your expertise. Your knowledge of the Griswold family and history certainly would be a benefit to those of us trying to put together an interesting agenda for 1996.

Karen Hornbeck, Any Rude and I are gathering info and literature for programs and tours. We would like to have input and suggestions from both of you.

Sam & Joan Curtis have volunteered their cabin (located just off I84) on Sunday Oct. 9. This is a somewhat central location. We plan to meet at 2:00. According to directions given to me by Francis, take Exit 6, north on 507 to the blinker light in Newfoundland where you turn right and go 1.7 mi on Crestmont Dr. There is a log cabin on the left and you turn left (it is a dirt road). The Curtis cabin is "right there". Sam's telephone at the cabin is (717) 676-0902.

I hope you can join us. Since I will be leaving the next day for Florida and John & Amy are in Europe now, you can see we didn't have many choices for dates.

For your information, Sam, Joan & Francis are looking into sites. Judy Blair is willing to work on registration.

If you would like a ride to the meeting, just call me at 727-2597.

Dear Kathy,

Donald and I will be very pleased to be part of the GFA 1996 Reunion Committee, but unfortunately neither one of us can make the meeting on October 9th.

When the "all volunteer" committee was being formed, we thought it best to remain in the background for two reasons: (1) to make sure that other members of the family are truly interested in sponsoring the 1996 event and working to make it a reality, and (2) to allow new voices to be heard in a leadership capacity in Griswold events.

We are both very excited about the 1996 joint reunion and will do everything that we can to make the event a resounding success.

Please let us know when the next committee meeting will take place.

Sincerely,

Robert

AMERICAN LEGION POULTRY SHOW By S. Robert Powell

The Third Annual Poultry Show, sponsored by the Albert H. Crane Post 221, American Legion, Carbondale, Pennsylvania, took place February 14-18, 1933.

In the Foreword of the Souvenir Program of the show, we read the following: "This is the only Poultry Show run by an American Legion Post in the United States. Of this fact we feel proud since it has been given notice all over the country."

We learned of the existence of these Carbondale Poultry Shows only by chance. One of my colleagues in the Carbondale Historical Society discovered the souvenir program for the 1933 Carbondale show in a box of Carbondale memorabilia that was discarded by a family when they cleaned out and moved into an old house in the area. The souvenir program was immediately brought to my attention.

The show took place in the Masonic Building, Salem Avenue, Carbondale. Poultry Show headquarters was the Hotel Anthracite. The Poultry Show Committee consisted of the following: Charles A. Booth, H.M. Bender, Everett Reese, Leo Serafin, Dr. C.W. Rippon, Jas. Kilpatrick, Geo. Lesher, Barry Searle, and Fahy Ely. A well known poultry breeder and exhibitor who, as a young man, showed in these American Legion Poultry Shows in the 1930's in Carbondale is the late Cecil Rose of Montrose, Pennsylvania (see the article "Cecil and Mary Rose," POULTRY PRESS, April 1989, pp. 32-33; also the obituary of Cecil Rose, POULTRY PRESS, April 1994, p. 2).

There were 381 birds in the show. Fifty one exhibitors showed 41 varieties of standards, with a total of 210 standards in the show. Nineteen varieties of Bantams were shown by 25 exhibitors, who showed a total of 135 Bantams. Two exhibitors who showed 9 varieties of ducks, with 18 ducks in the show. One exhibitor showed a Capon. Two exhibitors showed 9 Bronze Turkeys. One exhibitor showed two Egyptian Geese. Two exhibitors each showed an old pair of Golden Pheasants and one exhibitor showed a young pair of Melanistic Mutant Pheasants. The complete catalogue of the show was reprinted in the January issue of the Newsletter of the Central Pennsylvania Avian Club.

The classes within varieties were the usual: cock, hen, cockerel, pullet. In addition, old pens and young pens were exhibited in many varieties. There were 12 bantam chicken pens shown and 15 standard chicken pens shown.

A pen, I learned from Elton Minnich, consists of three females and one male. In explaining to me what a pen was, Elton recalled showing pens with his father at the New York State Fair for many years. When a pen is judged, he added, the three females count 50% and the male counts 50%.

Many of the birds shown in the Carbondale American Legion show in 1933 were of breeds and varieties that one sees a lot of these days. There were shown, however, breeds and varieties that are not commonly seen these days or which no longer exist. Among the standard chickens were Dark Barred Rocks, Red Caps, Lakenvelders, La Fleche, six varieties of Pit Games (including Muff, O.E., Pit Games), and five varieties of Hamburgs. Among the bantams shown were Exhibition B.B. Red Games and Old English Black Red Games, White Malay Games, Black Red Malay Games and White Rosecombs. Among the ducks were Australian Spots.

Catalogues such as this one from 1933 are, I think, interesting documents in exhibition poultry history. Have there been other poultry shows sponsored by an American Legion Post in the United States since the shows sponsored in the 1930's? If there have, we would be interested to know when and where.

Dear Mary, Gloria & Jane,
Thanks for the clippings about the Powell/Castle wedding and the Endicott Veterans' Memorial Park. I'm not certain if there are direct family connections to the persons involved, but I will check into it. It's very nice of you to send along the clippings. We appreciate your thoughtfulness.

I showed some of my birds at the N.Y. State Fair in Syracuse
this year and I am pleased to report that I had both
Grand Champion Standard Chicken and Grand Champion Bantam Chicken — and there were 2014 well over 3,000 birds in the show. The Syracuse fair is, in my opinion, one of the best.

Hope you are all well and enjoying the beautiful autumn sunshine.

Best regards,

Robert

1993 Master Exhibitors

In the middle of the night after I mailed the spring newsletter I finally realized that the reason the pages did not come out like I had planned was that I had forgotten to include the list of new Master Exhibitors. Please accept my apology for the oversight.

Here is this year's list. Congratulations to all those who made it. Each name is preceded by the ME number: 250 S. Robert Powell, Pennsylvania; 251 Don, Sue & Michelle Nelson, Rhode Island; 252 Jack, Jr. Tickle, Pennsylvania; 253 Ken & Eve Bundy, California; 254 Tom Gray, California; 255 Bill & Charleen Casto, Oklahoma; 256 Frank Harris, Virginia; 257 Darwin & Donita Woodall, Oklahoma; 258 Gary E Cooper, Kansas; 259 Floyd Huffman, Kansas; 260 Kuhnert's Feathered Acres, Illinois; 261 Kevin Noorlander, Washington; 262 Saxton & Skidmore, Washington; 263 Emma Jean Pitts, Indiana; 264 Jones & Leonard, California; 265 Fred J. Zillich, Missouri; 266 Fran & Katie Andrews, New York; 267 Bud Hudson, Illinois; 268 Tom, Carla & T.J. Pierceall, Illinois; 269 Bob Pinkerton, Iowa; 270 Cliff Ikenberry, Kansas; 271 Aaron Hamilton, New Mexico; 272 Patricia A Lacey, Wisconsin; 273 Daniel & Marietta Schuth, New York; 274 John W Johnstone, California; 275 Truda Luise Fosbrink, Indiana; 276 Reynold Loecker, South Dakota; 277 John P. Foster, Washington; 278 Suzanne Leonard, California; 279 John E. Norris, Pennsylvania; 280 James P Rines, Jr., North Carolina; 281 Victoria L. Dyck, British Columbia; 282 Johnnie Flowers, North Carolina; 283 Bob Brown, California.

Proposed By-Laws Change

The Constitution and By-Laws committee proposes this amendment to the APA By-Laws. It will be voted on by the Board of Directors at their meeting in Columbus, Ohio November 11th.

Replace the first sentence of ARTICLE II, Section 1, paragraph g with these two sentences: "All ballots must be postmarked no later than thirty days after the date of mailing the ballots, and must be received by the Election Commissioner no later than forty five days after the date of mailing the ballots. Forty five days after the mailing of the ballots the Election Commissioner shall open and count the ballots, with no ballots to be opened before this time. The rest of the paragraph would remain the same."

The committee recommends this change and feels it will make it easier for all our members to participate in APA elections.

In Memoriam

CECIL E. ROSE
1899 - 1994

Cecil Rose lived a very long and a very productive life. A big part of his life centered around Harford Fair.

Cecil started coming to the Fair at a very young age, and may have attended more Fairs than any other person. He started exhibiting at age 13, bringing horses and poultry. His interest in poultry grew until he averaged bringing 150 show birds each year. He also entered many other shows, and was very well known throughout both Pennsylvania and New York for the quality of his birds.

After joining the Harford Agricultural Society in 1951, Cecil became a board member in 1958 and served as President from 1965 to 1978. He was also Poultry Superintendent for many years.

With his wife Mary, who survives, Cecil gave liberally of both time and money to improve the buildings and grounds of the Fair. We truly appreciate all they have done over the years.

— would take a book to list all of Cecil's accomplishments. He leaves a legacy that will not be equalled.

A.B.A. HAPPENINGS

by
Eleanor Vinhage
Secretary

The ABA National meet is now history. The minutes of the meeting will be carried in the Winter Quarterly which will be mailed mid December. Many thanks to the Carpet City Club for hosting our meet. The next meeting of the ABA will be the Semi-Annual meet which will be hosted by the Unifour Poultry Club in Hickory, North Carolina in March of 1995.

There is now one month left to file to run for office in the ABA. The election of officers will be held in February 1995. Deadline for filing is December 1, 1994.

At this time I would like to thank the contributors to our 1994 yearbook, for the articles they submitted. Sheila Clanton, Bjorn K. Netland, Loyl Stromberg, Carl Maurer, Anthony Bezok, Larry Peterson, Doug Pierson, Earline Butler, David and Pam Riley, S. Robert Powell, F.P. Jeffrey, and Lee Fottler. Articles are always an important part of our annual yearbook. We are now looking for articles for the 1995 yearbook. Articles are always helpful to both the experienced and the novice.

Bids for the 1996 Semi-Annual and National meets can now be submitted to the ABA office for consideration by the Board of Directors. The Semi-Annual will be voted on at the Semi-Annual in Hickory, North Carolina 1995. The National will be voted at the National meet in Columbus, Ohio 1995. Any clubs in the qualifying sections may send for bid form to the ABA office.

The Semi-Annual must be held between March 1, 1996 and July 31, 1996. The meet will be held in Section 4: Utah, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana, Alaska, California, Hawaii, and Nevada.

The National meet must be held between August 1, 1996 and the last day of February, 1997. The National meet will be held in Section 3: Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Missouri, Arkansas, Texas and Manitoba and West.

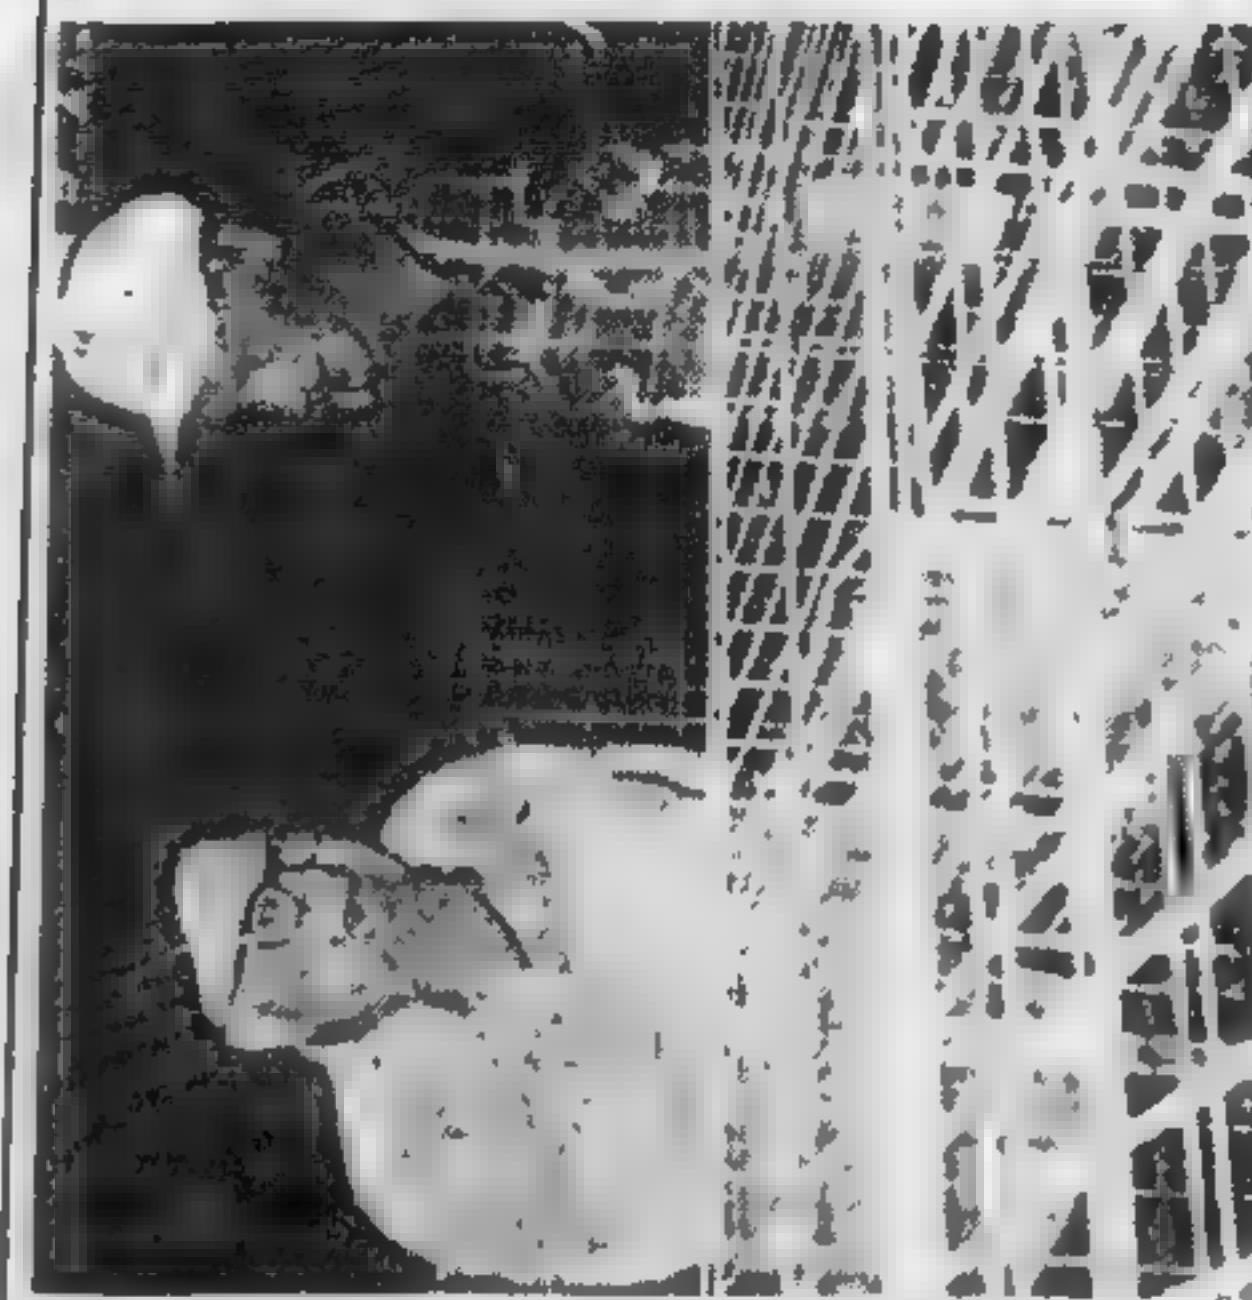

On behalf of the Officers of the ABA, we all wish you a Happy Thanksgiving

TWIN TIER POULTRY CLUB SHOW By Robert Whitney Show Secty

Pancakes and eggs were waiting for the exhibitors as the Twin Tiers Poultry Club held its 12th Annual Show September 11, 1994. An overcast morning couldn't dampen the spirits of the 63 exhibitors and 3 judges.

Ralph Beamer, Gerald Donnelly and Rick Porr had the task of examining 600 plus birds to find the chosen few. When the dust and feathers had settled a Partridge Rock hen exhibited by S. Robert Powell had been awarded Champion Large Fowl. Reserve Large Fowl went to Don Krake with a Black Hamburg hen and 3rd best to S. Robert Powell with a BB Red Modern Game Cock. Bantam Champion this year was a Black Old English Game hen shown by Ben Bensing. Reserve Bantam went to Art Lundgren with a Gray Call Old Duck. 3rd Best Bantam was a Birchen Modern Game also exhibited by Art Lundgren. The Waterfowl class was headed up with the Gray Call Old hen exhibited by Art Lundgren who also had the Reserve Champion Waterfowl, a Black East Indie Old Drake. Ken and Mary Learn took 3rd Best Waterfowl on a Toulouse O's Gander. Over $1,200.00 was given out in cash and plaques to many of the exhibitors.

This year the Twin Tiers Poultry Club had the honor of having 19 Junior Exhibitors showing with us. These young exhibitors must be applauded for the quality of the birds and the exhibitors with their energy and smiling faces, the older exhibitors with their lack of energy but still smiling faces and the judges who helped to make our 12th show such a success.

We hope to see all of these exhibitors and many new ones next year, for what we hope will be the best show yet.

TWIN TIER POULTRY CLUB

THE POULTRY SHOW AT THE 1994 NEW YORK STATE FAIR By New York State Fair Staff

The poultry building on the New York State Fairgrounds in Syracuse is a magnificent survivor of an age when agricultural expositions were conducted on a grand scale. To walk into the building is exhilarating in the same way that to enter a Gothic cathedral or a large urban train station from the nineteenth century is exhilarating. You know in an instant that you have entered an immense interior space in which important, extra-ordinary and larger-than-life experiences are not uncommon.

The building, erected in 1913, is a vast rectangular structure with a wide exposition balcony that completely surrounds the interior space. At the balcony level, the building is surrounded by windows. Clerestory windows in the main roof of the building, in addition, allow an abundance of natural light to illuminate both the balcony and the main exposition floor. The interior space is immense, but not overpowering, primarily because the exposition space is divided into two levels: the main exposition floor and the balcony. A wonderful feature of the building is that one can, from the balcony, look down on thousands of show cages.

The large cages on the main floor are double-tiered. The smaller cages on the balcony are two, three, or four levels high. In those cages, at the 1994 New York State Fair, sixty-one exhibitors showed the following: over 1,000 standard chickens, over 650 banlam chickens, 384 ducks, 145 geese, 55 guinea fowl, over 50 ornamental pheasants, 600 pigeons, 10 turkeys, and almost 1,000 rabbits. The Superintendent of the Poultry Building, John Pierce, reported that when he started showing bantams in the 1950's that there were sometimes 2,000 bantams in the show and that it was possible to exhibit as many as 11,000 birds and animals in the building at one time. John Pierce remarked: "We have the largest show in New York state of standard chickens, over 1,000 birds." The Poultry Building on the New York State Fairgrounds in Syracuse could easily house a poultry exposition such as the national meet of the APA or the ABA.

The task of judging the poultry show this year, in which there were nearly 3,000 birds, was assigned to George Schroeder (Prompton, PA), Ernie Durb (Wilmington, MA), Jerry Yeaw (North Scituate, RI), and Truman Stone (Wake, VA). The bantams, waterfowl, and Guinea Fowl were judged on August 29th; the standard chickens were judged on August 30th and the show champions were then selected.

The big winner was Roland Romig, whose Brown China young gander was Grand Champion Goose, Grand Champion Waterfowl, and Grand Champion of the Show. The other big winner of the day was S. Robert Powell who had (1) Grand Champion Standard Chicken on a Partridge Plymouth Rock hen, (2) Grand Champion Bantam Chicken on a Silver Sebright hen, and (3) Grand Champion Guinea Fowl on a Pearl cock. The Grand Champion Pheasant was a Golden Pheasant cock, shown by Anthony Carvelli III.

Eight special trophies were awarded at the show: (1) Cecil Rose Memorial Trophy for Grand Champion Standard Male to S. Robert Powell on a Rose Comb Rhode Island Red cock, (2) Robert S. Turner Memorial Trophy for Grand Champion Standard Female to S. Robert Powell on a Partridge Plymouth Rock hen, (3) W. Joe McQueeney Memorial Trophy for Grand Champion Bantam Female to S. Robert Powell on a Silver Sebright hen, (4) Gus Braun Memorial Trophy for Grand Champion Bantam Male to John Hayes on a White Plymouth Rock cock, (5) Charles Burmaster Memorial Trophy for Champion

Breeder Pen to Fred and Nancy Herrick on Silver Sebrights, (6) Alex Duffy Trophy for Champion Standard or Bantam Cockin to Rudy Brouillette on a standard Black Cockin cock, (7) Robert G. "Doc" Morris Memorial Plaque for Best Dorking, donated by John Hayes, to Rev. Roland Romig on a Colored Dorking hen, and (8) Cecil Rose Memorial Trophy for Best Standard Plymouth Rock, donated by John Hayes, to S. Robert Powell on a Partridge Plymouth Rock hen.

Throughout the Fair, there is a succession of events going on in the Poultry Building, through which pass between 10 and 20 thousand visitors daily. A rooster crowing contest is held daily for eleven days, followed by a championship class in rooster crowing. Paul Jones, Oneida, NY, was the winner this year, with a 10-year old standard Brown Red Old English Game. Second place was won by Don Ternosky; third by Paul Jones. A Most Beautiful Chicken contest is held annually, with the winner chosen by a prominent local celebrity. This year the winner was chosen by Mike Price, Channel 9 TV. He selected a Mille Fleurs Uccle Belgian hen that was shown by Richard and Thola Waldau, Constantia, NY. The same bird, we should add, was selected by the judges of the show as the Champion Feather Legged Female in the show. Richard and Thola Waldau, who have been raising Uccle Belgians for 11 years, also had Champion Feather Legged Male on a Mille Fleurs Uccle Belgian and First Old Trio in the show on the same breed.

One of the special features of the building is the elegant waterfowl pond that is located in the center of the main exposition floor. Benches surround the pond and they are in continual use by spectators as they relax and enjoy the sights and sounds of the show. Over 30 wild and exotic waterfowl were in the pond this year in an impressive display arranged by Paul Brown and Larry Dishaw.

A very visible figure in the Poultry Building during the Fair was John Rebhahn, Syracuse, NY. He is the well known breeder of standard and bantam Modern Games and standard Speckled Sussex. His contributions on the smooth-running efficiency and success of the show were many. Another prominent figure in the Poultry Building during the Fair was Arthur Schallenberg.

Westernville, NY. Arthur Schallenberg is the well known and respected APA Judge and Superintendent Emeritus of the New York State Fair. He exhibited four of the class champion at this year's show: Champion Mediterranean Male on a Single Comb Black Minorca cock, Champion Mediterranean Female on a Single Comb white Leghorn pullet, Champion English Male on a Black Orpington cock, and Champion All Other Standard Breeds Male on a Silver Phoenix cock.

The 1994 New York State Fair Poultry Show was, by all accounts, a very successful show, and much of the credit for the success goes to Show Superintendent, John Pierce (Syracuse, NY) and his dedicated and conscientious staff: Assistant Superintendent, Roger Davis (Verona, NY), and Cooping Superintendent, Robert Richie (Rome, NY). Throughout the Fair, the birds were carefully looked after by the large and efficient staff, who graciously assisted exhibitors coop in and coop out. Poultry nutrition specialist, Paul A. Jones, Oneida, NY, personally fed, morning and night, all of the poultry in the show throughout the Fair. The future of exhibition poultry at The Great New York State Fair appears to be very bright.

Moosic Grange THANKSGIVING DINNER, Monday, November 7th at 6 P.M.

--everyone is asked to bring a covered dish; the Worthy Master, Donald W. Powell, will roast a turkey for the occasion

Members of the Grange are asked to remember that the expenses of the Grange go on month after month, whether or not members attend regularly. The annual dues paid by members go only so far. Donations of time, materials, labor and money will make it possible for the Grange to continue its work and will be gratefully accepted by the Moosic Grange. Donations may be mailed to the Treasurer of the Moosic Grange:

HOME FOR THANKSGIVING

OVER the river and through the wood,
To grandfather's house we go;
The horse knows the way
To carry the sleigh
Through the white and drifted snow.

Over the river and through the wood—
Oh, how the wind does blow!
It stings the toes
And bites the nose,
As over the ground we go.

Over the river and through the wood,
To have a first-rate play;
Hear the bells ring,
"Ting-a-ling-ding!"
Hurrah for Thanksgiving Day!

Over the river and through the wood,
Trot fast, my dapple-gray!
Spring over the ground
Like a hunting hound,
For this is Thanksgiving Day.

Over the river and through the wood,
And straight through the barn-yard gate,
We seem to go
Extremely slow—
It is so hard to wait!

Over the river and through the wood—
Now grandmother's cap I spy!
Hurrah for the fun!
Is the pudding done?
Hurrah for the pumpkin pie!

Dear Arthur,

How wonderful of you to have arisen from the dead! However, since you have not been ambulatory these past forty odd years, I feel your brain power has slipped. Otherwise, you would have noticed the following:

A) The superb Black Australorp is in actuality an extremely poor quality Black Orpington, a fraud!

B) The flawless Golden Campine has a myriad of defects, two of which are black hackle and substandard type.

Any skilled judge would have disqualified both immediately!

Unfortunately the judges made another unforgivable mistake by overlooking an exquisite pair of Rose Comb White Leghorn Pullets. These two birds shone as a beacon of light in a darkened room!

Any engravings that you plan to do should be done of these beautiful Leghorns. I feel that should you do this, it would be the pinnacle of your artistic career!

One other point of interest. The gentleman who owns the birds in your letter to me is anything but young! He is FIFTY! FIFTY! Can you imagine! See you in Chicago,

On November 18, the moon will pass through the faint outer shadow of the earth, and a penumbral eclipse of the moon will occur. This eclipse actually begins half an hour before midnight, EST, on the 17th, and mideclipse takes place at 1:44 A.M., EST, on the 18th, when the northern side of the moon should be noticeably darker than the southern side.

The Leonid meteor shower unfortunately will probably reach its peak on the 18th, the same morning as the full moon, which will overwhelm the show with its brilliant light. Nonetheless, check out the sky between approximately 2:00 and 5:00 A.M. for unusually brilliant meteors streaking from the direction of Leo, the lion. This is the famous meteor display that can produce "storms" of tens of thousands of meteors per hour during the return of its parent comet (Tempel-Tuttle) to the inner part of the solar system. The comet is due to return in February 1998, so this year the Leonids may provide a few bright forerunners of its main stream of debris.

The Crystal Band to perform annual Christmas concert at Berean Baptist

The Crystal Band will perform a Christmas concert in the Berean Baptist Church on Sunday evening, December 4, beginning at 7 p.m.

The concert is sponsored by the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum, as a Christmas gift to the community, and by the Berean Baptist Church. This will be a free concert and everyone is invited to attend. Refreshments will be served following the concert.

The Crystal Band is a concert band organized in 1879 in the Petersburg section of Scranton as a boys' brass band. At that time, there were as many as 50,000 concert bands in the United States. Today, such bands are a rarity. "Bands like the Crystal Band that have survived," remarked S.

Robert Powell, President of the Historical Society, "are truly community treasures."

Among the current and former members of the Crystal Band from Carbondale and the surrounding area are: John M. Winters, Howard Yepson, Melissa Hartmann, Matt Hartmann, Robert Bednarczyk, Becky Wasserman, Robert Bishop, Gerald Kaminski, Sheryl Oleski, Stephen Semonich, Sarah Parry, and Barney Wilkens.

The concert in the Berean Baptist Church on December 4 will be under the direction of Larry F.

Hughes, who has selected a broad range of Christmas music, including Leroy Anderson's "Christmas Festival for Band" and "The Wonderful World of Christmas."

Another very popular work on the program—both for the band members and the audience—is the arrangement by Leroy Anderson for concert band of "Sleigh Ride."

For additional information on this 11th annual concert band Christmas concert in Carbondale by the Crystal Band, contact either Dr. S. Robert Powell (282-5197), or the Rev. Dale Pepper at the Berean Baptist Church (282-1511).

Historical Society sets meeting at City Hall

A regular business meeting of the Carbondale Historical Society will take place on Thursday, Dec. 1, at 7:30 p.m. in Room 302 of Carbondale City Hall. All interested persons are invited to attend, whether or not they are Society members. S. Robert Powell will preside.

On the agenda are the final plans and preparations for the Crystal Band Christmas concert sponsored by the Society annually; and arrangements for the Society's Annual Meeting and Christmas Dinner.

Robert Powell, President of the Historical Society, "are truly community treasures."

Among the current and former members of the Crystal Band from Carbondale and the surrounding area are: John M. Winters, Howard Yepson, Melissa Hartmann, Matt Hartmann, Robert Bednarczyk, Becky Wasserman, Robert Bishop, Gerald Kaminski, Sheryl Oleski, Stephen Semonich, Sarah Parry, and Barney Wilkens.

The concert in the Berean Baptist Church on December 4 will be under the direction of Larry F.

Hughes, who has selected a broad range of Christmas music, including Leroy Anderson's "Christmas Festival for Band" and "The Wonderful World of Christmas."

Another very popular work on the program—both for the band members and the audience—is the arrangement by Leroy Anderson for concert band of "Sleigh Ride."

For additional information on this 11th annual concert band Christmas concert in Carbondale by the Crystal Band, contact either Dr. S. Robert Powell (282-5197), or the Rev. Dale Pepper at the Berean Baptist Church (282-1511).

Garden State Poultry Fancier's Association 53rd Annual Fall Show - November 12 & 13, 1994

Welcome! We're pleased to have you join us for our annual fall show. This year we have a total of 1043 birds entered, including 749 bantam chickens, 125 large fowl, and 169 waterfowl, exhibited by 103 individuals, including 29 junior exhibitors.

A big thanks to the GSPFA members and friends who made this show a reality by showing up for the set-up dates.

Received too late to be included in the premium are the following:

COCHINS INTERNATIONAL REGIONAL MEET -

Master Breeder upon achieving 500 points in no less than five years. One point for every five birds shown for best and reserve breed. One point for every five birds shown for best and reserve variety. One point for every five birds shown for overall champion(must be five standard and five bantam). A merit award will be given for the first one hundred points in any variety.

Awards offered by the Cochins International Club will be issued only to persons that are members in good standing prior to judging. Mail dues to Elton Minnich, New Tripoli, PA 18066, or purchase a membership prior to judging from the show secretary. Annual dues: $15/family, $10/adult, $7.50/junior. Membership includes three newsletters per year with a free breeders directory and eligibility for awards at all club meets. All Cochins - standard, bantam, and frizzle are eligible for master breeder points.

Individual Specials -

T. Lloyd Faubel offers $10 for the best standard Partridge Cochin in memory of Paul Pinkerton.

Herb Blanchard offers $25 for the best display of SC White Leghorn bantams in memory of Jake Snyder.

TWIN TIER POULTRY CLUB SHOW By Robert Whitney Show Secty

Pancakes and eggs were waiting for the exhibitors as the Twin Tiers Poultry Club held its 12th Annual Show September 11, 1994. An overcast morning couldn't dampen the spirits of the 63 exhibitors and 3 judges.

Ralph Beamer, Gerald Donnelly and Rick Porr had the task of examining 600 plus birds to find the chosen few. When the dust and feathers had settled a Partridge Rock hen exhibited by S. Robert Powell had been awarded Champion Large Fowl. Reserve Large Fowl went to Don Krake with a Black Hamburg hen and 3rd best to S. Robert Powell with a BB Red Modern Game Cock. Bantam Champion this year was a Black Old English Game hen shown by Ben Bensing. Reserve Bantam went to Art Lundgren with a Gray Call Old Duck. 3rd Best Bantam was a Birchen Modern Game also exhibited by Art Lundgren. The Waterfowl class was headed up with the Gray Call Old hen exhibited by Art Lundgren who also had the Reserve Champion Waterfowl, a Black East Indie Old Drake. Ken and Mary Learn took 3rd Best Waterfowl on a Toulouse Old Gander. Over $1,200.00 was given out in cash and plaques to many of the exhibitors.

This year the Twin Tiers Poultry Club had the honor of having 19 Junior Exhibitors showing with us. These young exhibitors must be applauded for the quality of the birds and the care they have given them. Champion and Reserve were chosen among these birds with Champion Large Fowl going to Abby Cox with a Silver Spangled Hamburg Cockerel. Reserve Champion Large Fowl went to Amanda Shedd exhibiting R.C. Rhode Island Red Pullet. Champion Bantam was shown by Sarah Post who had a Partridge Wyandotte Hen. Reserve Champion Bantam went to Aaron Lesswing with a nice White Crested Black Polish Hen. Waterfowl Champion was a White Call Hen exhibited by Matthew Potter. Reserve Champion Waterfowl went to Galen Lewis with a Black East Indie Old Drake. Though the entries were down in the trio classes, the quality was still excellent. Winning Best Large Fowl Trio was John Pierce with Reserve going to Alice Daves. Art Lundgren captured both Best and Reserve Bantam Trios.

The great comments we received on our new Large Fowl cages and different Waterfowl display area were taken with great pride. We wish to thank the Junior Exhibitors with their energy and smiling faces, the older exhibitors with their lack of energy but still smiling faces and the judges who helped to make our 12th show such a success.

We hope to see all of these exhibitors and many new ones next year, for what we hope will be the best show yet.

HOME FOR THANKSGIVING

O VER the river and through the wood,
To grandfather's house we go;
The horse knows the way
To carry the sleigh
Through the white and drifted snow.

Over the river and through the wood—
Oh, how the wind does blow!
It stings the toes
And bites the nose,
As over the ground we go.

Over the river and through the wood,
To have a first-rate play;
Hear the bells ring,
"Ting-a-ling-ding!"
Hurrah for Thanksgiving Day!

Over the river and through the wood,
Trot fast, my dapple-gray!
Spring over the ground
Like a hunting hound,
For this is Thanksgiving Day.

Over the river and through the wood,
And straight through the barn-yard gate,
We seem to go
Extremely slow—
It is so hard to wait!

Over the river and through the wood—
Now grandmother's cap I spy!
Hurrah for the fun!
Is the pudding done?
Hurrah for the pumpkin pie!

Dear Sir or Madam:

I would like to apply for the position of Assistant Director of Development, College Advancement Office. A copy of my résumé is enclosed.

In the course of my professional life, I have had experience in the academic community as a college teacher. In addition, I have broad experience in publishing and several years of experience in investment banking. I am very good at working with people and had considerable experience in working with volunteers and community groups.

Senator Robert J. Mellow and Congressman Edward G. Staback, among the other persons listed in the "References" section of my résumé, will be pleased to endorse my application for this position. Their telephone numbers are given on page 2 of my résumé.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Dear Bob:

I need a job.

Due to a decrease in enrollment, I am not teaching at Penn State this semester, and it doesn't look like I'll be teaching during the Spring semester.

Currently, I am working part-time in the bakery at the Dickson City Wegman's, for slightly more than minimum wage.

I have a couple of ideas about how I could be very useful to the Lackawanna Heritage Valley. Possibly I could meet with you to discuss those ideas? A copy of my resume is enclosed.

RE: Full-time position as proofreader

Dear Sir or Madam:

I would like to be considered for the position of full-time proofreader at ICS Learning Systems, as advertized in the December 4, 1994 edition of The Scranton Times. A copy of my résumé is enclosed.

As you will note from my résumé, I have had broad experience in publishing, including proofreading, particularly in the period that I worked for American Management Associations, Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, and The Carbondale News.

Attached is a copy of the newspaper ad for the position of proofreader at ICS Learning Systems. As you will note, I have recommended four corrections to the text of the ad as published in the newspaper.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,

Four recommended corrections to the text of the ad:

PROOFREADER

ICS Learning Systems-the world's leader in distance education is seeking a full-time proofreader for our Product Development department. The person selected will proofread texts for errors in grammar, punctuation, composition, and consistency. Applicant should possess a B.A. in English or related field in the Humanities, an excellent grasp of the English language, a keen eye for detail, and an ability to meet deadlines and to work well with members of a production team. At least one-year proofreading experience desired. Freelance proofreading positions may also be available. Send resume to:

"the world's leader in distance education" is used in apposition to "ICS Learning Systems"; lines 1-3 should, therefore, be punctuated as follows: "ICS Learning Svstems, the world's leader in distance education, is seeking..."

"consistency" and not "consistancy"

"At least one-year proofreading experience..." is not correct. There are two possibilities: "At least one year of proofreading experience..." or "At least one-year's proofreading experience..."

"résumé" and not "resume"

IF YOU TELL SOMEONE
YOUR AGE TODAY, MAY
THEY GASP IN
GENUINE SURPRISE AND SAY YOU DON'T LOOK IT.

And may they not ruin the effect by adding, "I thought you were way older than that."
